BIG TEN. BIG NEWS.

- Iowa and Michigan will square off in the 2021 Big Ten Football Championship Game presented by Discover at 8 p.m. (ET) Saturday at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis, with the game televised live to a nationwide audience on FOX and broadcast on radio via Compass Media Networks. The Hawkeyes will be making their second appearance in the conference championship game (first since 2015), while the Wolverines are headed to Indianapolis for the first time in program history.
- Both of Saturday's participating teams are seeking their first Big Ten Football Championship Game title. The last time a new champion was crowned at the event was 2016, when Penn State captured its first championship with a 38-31 win over Wisconsin. The most recent first-time participant in the Big Ten Football Championship Game was Northwestern in 2018. The winner of Saturday's Big Ten Championship Game will receive the Amos Alonzo Stagg Championship Trophy.
- For both Iowa and Michigan, a win on Saturday would mark their first Big Ten football title since 2004, when the Hawkeyes and Wolverines shared the conference crown. Michigan is in search of its Big Ten-record 43rd conference championship (first outright since 2003), while Iowa is aiming for its 12th title and first outright crown since 1985.
- Iowa claimed the outright Big Ten West Division title, its second since the Big Ten moved to divisions and first since 2015. Michigan captured a share of the Big Ten East Division championship, also its second divisional title and first since 2018.
- Michigan leads the all-time series with Iowa, 42-15-4, although the schools have met just five times since the Big Ten moved to divisions in 2011. Iowa has won three of those five series games during the divisional era, but Michigan came away victorious in the team's last matchup, winning 10-3 on Oct. 5, 2019, at Michigan Stadium.
- On Friday the Big Ten Conference announced it had sold out of all tickets, suites, and VIP packages for the 2021 Big Ten Football Championship Game. The Michigan vs. Iowa game will eclipse the 2015 Big Ten Championship Game record of 66,985 attendees, making in the second-largest crowd that Lucas Oil Stadium has ever had for a football game.
- Ohio State (2014, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020) has claimed five titles including the last four. Wisconsin (2011 and 2012) and Michigan State (2013 and 2015) have each won two Big Ten Championship Games, while Penn State was victorious in 2016. Ohio State and Wisconsin lead all schools with six Big Ten Championship Game appearances each, followed by Michigan State with three, Iowa and Northwestern with two, and one title game berth each for Michigan, Nebraska and Penn State.

BIG LIFE. BIG STAGE. BIG TEN.

The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all 14 Big Ten universities, which is widely considered to be the model for effective and voluntary collaboration among top research universities.

- Four Big Ten teams appear in the latest College Football Playoff rankings released Tuesday. All four Big Ten squads are in the CFP Top 15, the most from one conference, with Michigan at No. 2, Ohio State at No. 7, Michigan State at No. 11 and Iowa at No. 13. The winner of Saturday's Big Ten Football Championship Game will clinch the conference's berth into the College Football Playoff bowl system and will either play in the national semifinals on Dec. 31 (Cotton Bowl Classic or Capital One Orange Bowl) or represent the Big Ten against a Pac-12 opponent at the tradition-rich Rose Bowl Game on New Year's Day in Pasadena, Calif. The CFP National Championship Game will be played Jan. 10 at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis.
- Iowa, Maryland, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, Ohio State, Penn State, Purdue and Wisconsin have all secured bowl eligibility by reaching six wins this season. The Big Ten will continue to feature the largest bowl lineup in conference history.
- The Big Ten leads all conferences with four teams having earned at least 10 victories this season: Michigan (11), Iowa (10), Michigan State (10) and Ohio State (10). Additionally, three Big Ten teams (Minnesota, Purdue and Wisconsin) finished the season with eight victories, making the Big Ten the only conference to have half of its teams (seven) record at least eight wins this season.
- Four Big Ten teams appear in the Associated Press Poll this week. Michigan leads the conference at No. 2, followed by No. 7 Ohio State, No. 11 Michigan State and No. 15 Iowa. Four other conference programs are receiving votes in the latest media balloting — Wisconsin, Minnesota, Purdue and Penn State.
- On Oct. 10, for the first time in the history of the Associated Press college football poll (established in 1936), the Big Ten had five teams ranked in the top 10 (No. 2 Iowa, No. 6 Ohio State, No. 7 Penn State, No. 8 Michigan and No. 10 Michigan State).
- Four teams in the Big Ten rank among the top 10 in the nation in scoring defense: Wisconsin (t-5th, 14.4 ppg), Penn State (7th, 16.8), Michigan (8th, 17.2), and Iowa (9th, 17.2). In terms of total defense, Wisconsin ranks second in the nation (240.8 ypg) and Minnesota is fourth (284.8).
- In addition to ranking second in the nation in total defense, Wisconsin boasts the No. 1 rushing defense in the country and is surrendering just 65.2 yards per game on the ground. Minnesota's run defense ranks 10th in the nation (100.2 ypg).
- Four Big Ten teams rank in the top 10 in terms of defensive passing efficiency: Iowa (3rd, 106.19), Wisconsin (5th, 109.69), and Penn State (8th, 111.98).
- Offensively, Ohio State leads the nation with 551.4 yards per game, while also boasting the country's highest-scoring offense (45.5 points per game). The Big Ten also has two of the top passing offenses in the country: Ohio State (5th, 364.9 ypg) and Purdue (8th, 340.4).
- The 2021 Big Ten Football Championship Virtual Press Box will feature, statistics, press conference quotes and post-game notes from Saturday's game. Visit bigten.org/FCGMedia. In addition to the resources provided on the virtual press box, a full copy of the Big Ten Football Championship record book can be found on Page 10. Final statistics for the 2021 regular season can be found at the end of this release.

BIG LIFE. BIG STAGE. BIG TEN.

The Big Ten took part in the nation's first bowl game, winning the 1902 Rose Bowl Game, and signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl with permanent conference affiliations.

BIG TEN FOOTBALL AWARDS

The Big Ten continues to honor its past while recognizing its current standouts at the conclusion of the 2021 campaign. The Big Ten's enhanced football awards program presents 19 individual trophies in addition to the Big Ten Championship trophy, bearing the names of one or two former standouts. The distinguished names on these football awards honor just a small sampling of the countless students and coaches who have contributed to the conference's rich and storied history.

Seventeen of the honors were awarded immediately following the regular season, including awards for the best quarterback, running back, receiver, tight end, offensive lineman, defensive lineman, linebacker, defensive back, kicker, punter and return specialist. Each of these individual position awards features the names of two former standouts.

The Big Ten also continues to honor the conference's top coaches, offensive and defensive players and linemen and freshmen with end-of-year trophies, with coaches having the opportunity to claim two awards. Media voters select the Dave McClain Coach of the Year, which has been awarded since 1972, while coaches vote for the Hayes-Schembechler Coach of the Year award. The top offensive player receives the Graham-George Offensive Player of the Year award, the best defensive player is awarded the Nagurski-Woodson Defensive Player of the Year award and the top freshman earns the Thompson-Randle El Freshman of the Year award.

The winner of Saturday's Big Ten Football Championship Game will receive the Amos Alonzo Stagg Championship Trophy, while the most outstanding player in the game will be awarded the Grange-Griffin Championship Game Most Valuable Player award. The conference also created two postcollegiate awards - the Ford-Kinnick Leadership Award and the Dungy-Thompson Humanitarian Award, which were also announced earlier this week.

The full list of awards, along with a breakdown of the former standouts appearing in each award's name, appears to the right.

BIG LIFE. BIG STAGE. BIG TEN.

The Big Ten will administer more than $240 million in direct financial support to more than 9,800 students competing in intercollegiate athletics for more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams in 42 different sports.

Since its inception in 1896, the pursuit and attainment of academic excellence has been a priority for every Big Ten member institution. But maintaining the conference's standard of competing at the highest level in athletics also endures as an important component of the Big Ten experience. Striking that balance between academics and athletics is integral to the Big Ten's identity. Recognized as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten strives for success from its students not only on the field and in the classroom, but around the world as well.

PREMIER ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS

The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all 14 Big Ten universities, which is widely considered to be the model for effective and voluntary collaboration among top research universities.

Every Big Ten Academic Alliance institution ranks among the top 70 universities in the nation according to the 2021 Academic Ranking of World Universities, including six in the top 30.

The Big Ten leads all conferences with more than 1,800 Academic All-Americans, including a Big Ten-record 56 honorees during the 2020-21 academic year.

Big Ten Academic Alliance schools annually conduct $10 billion in funded research, $5 billion more than any other conference.

A HISTORY OF ATHLETIC SUCCESS

Big Ten schools have won at least five national championships in 23 of the last 27 years, averaging nearly seven per year during that span.

Since the 2008-09 academic year, current Big Ten institutions have claimed 80 team national championships in 22 different sports.

BROAD-BASED PROGRAMMING

The Big Ten will administer more than $240 million in direct financial support to more than 9,800 students competing in intercollegiate athletics for more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams in 42 different sports.

The Big Ten sponsors 28 official conference sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the addition of men's ice hockey and men's and women's lacrosse in this decade.

The Big Ten leads the nation in total students competing in intercollegiate athletics and participation opportunities, and sponsors more official sports than all conferences except the Ivy League.

More than 1,500 Big Ten competitors have participated in the Olympics, winning more than 500 medals, including more than 200 gold. The Big Ten Conference enjoyed its finest performance at a single Olympic Games during the 2020 Summer Olympics in Tokyo, Japan, as athletes with Big Ten ties set conference records by earning 51 total medals and 22 gold medals during the 17-day competition. All 14 Big Ten member schools had an athlete win at least one medal in Tokyo, also a first in conference history.

PASSIONATE FOLLOWING

The Big Ten leads all conferences with 6.4 million alumni and nearly 580,000 students.

Each year more than 11 million patrons attend Big Ten home contests, as the conference has led the nation in attendance for men's basketball, ice hockey, volleyball and wrestling.

LEADERS IN INNOVATION

Took part in the nation's first bowl game, winning the 1902 Rose Bowl Game, and signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl with permanent conference affiliations.

Awarded the first Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915, honoring outstanding seniors who demonstrated excellence in academics and athletics.

Formed the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, enlisting former students that competed in conference athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

Became the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

Implemented the first collegiate football system of instant replay in 2004, which the NCAA approved for use among all conferences in 2006.

Launched the Big Ten Network (BTN) in 2007, the first national conference-owned television network.

Began partnering with the Ivy League to study the effects of head injuries in sports in 2012.

Accepted Johns Hopkins University as the conference's first sport affiliate members in men's and women's lacrosse in 2013 and 2015, respectively, and added Notre Dame as a sport affiliate member in men's ice hockey in 2017.

EXTENSIVE TELEVISION EXPOSURE

Through the Big Ten's current media agreements with BTN, ABC/ESPN, CBS and FOX, more than 2,000 Big Ten events are produced and distributed nationally and globally on an annual basis.

BTN is in almost 60 million homes across the United States and Canada, and is also available via the Fox Sports App, delivering live and on-demand programming to computers, smartphones and tablets. B1G+ streams hundreds of additional events each season.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

For more than 30 years, through the Big Ten's SCORE (Success Comes Out of Reading Everyday) program, the conference has partnered with Chicago elementary schools to improve reading performance.

Surrounding the Big Ten Football Championship Game and Basketball Tournaments, the conference has held numerous community initiatives, partnered with the College Football Playoff Foundation and other events such as the Big Ten Career Expo, SaturDAY of Service and Youth Football Clinics. In addition, the Big Ten has hosted a downtown 5K, collaborated with a local breast cancer awareness group and provided unique event experiences for military veterans.
