WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

The Maryland football team will make their second ever trip to Kinnick Stadium this weekend for a matchup against #19 Iowa. The Terps are 1-1 against the Hawkeyes since Maryland joined the Big Ten, with each program winning at home. The game will air on ESPN2 at 12:00 p.m.

Senior running back Ty Johnson now stands fourth-all time in Maryland lore in both career rushing yards and career all-purpose yards, jumping to both spots this past weekend against Rutgers with 132 rushing yards and 146 all-purpose yards. Johnson is only 10 yards behind former Maryland WR Stefon Diggs for third all-time in all-purpose yards with 4,106.

Junior safety Darnell Savage Jr. has posted four interceptions this season, which is tied with seven other players for the most in the country. Savage Jr. had two interceptions last week against Rutgers and one against No. 15 Michigan and Temple.

The Terrapins are currently fifth in the country and lead the Big Ten in turnover margin, at +1.5 per game, after recording five interceptions this past weekend against Rutgers. Maryland has won or tied the turnover battle in every game but one this season and has three times (Texas, Minnesota, Rutgers) had a turnover margin of three or greater.

6.5

Senior linebacker Tre Watson leads the Big Ten and ranks eighth in the country in solo tackles/g (6.5). The fifth-year transfer from Illinois was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week following his performance against Minnesota, when he totaled a game-high 11 tackles, including a sack, and returned an interception 36 yards for a touchdown. He has posted at least 10 tackles in each of the last four games.

12

Through six games, Maryland has recorded 12 interceptions, the second highest total in the country, trailing only North Texas with 13. The Terps have picked off at least one pass in every game this season, including five this past weekend against Rutgers, the Terps most in a game since they totaled seven picks against Duke on November 14, 1988.

ON THE OFFENSE

By The Numbers

Redshirt freshman Anthony McFarland recorded back-to-back 100-yard rushing games against Temple (9/15) and Minnesota (9/22), joining Wayne Wingfield (1979) as the only freshmen in program history to achieve the feat. A third 100-yard game would set the freshmen record for 100-yard games in a single-season. The electric playmaker has rushed for 402 yards on 45 carries over the last three games, averaging 8.9 yards per carry.

The Terps have had three different running backs rush for 100 yards in a game this season: Ty Johnson (at BG, MINN), Tayon Fleet-Davis, (at BG) and Anthony McFarland (Temple, MINN). The last time Maryland had three different players rush for 100 yards in a game in the same season was 1984, when Alvin Blount, Tommy Neal and Rick Badanjek each had 100-yard rushing performances.

After totaling 132 rushing yards against Rutgers last weekend, senior running back Ty Johnson has jumped from sixth to fourth on Maryland's all-time rushing list, now with 2,564 yards. The senior is now 407 yards behind Steve Atkins (1975-78) for third all-time in rushing. Johnson also catapulted to fourth in career all-purpose yards, surpassing the 4,000 yard mark, and needs only 11 yards to surpass Stefon Diggs and move to third all-time.

Offensively, Maryland has only turned the ball over five times this season, tied with Illinois and Michigan for the lowest total in the Big Ten. The Terps have thrown three interceptions and lost two fumbles. The combination of holding onto the ball offensively and taking it away on defense has led Maryland to the fifth best turnover margin (plus-1.5) in the country.

11

Maryland has had 11 different players score an offensive touchdown through the first six games of the season, the third-most in the Big Ten, trailing only Ohio State and Penn State. Sophomore running back Tayon Fleet-Davis leads the Terps with four (three rushing, one receiving), while senior running back Ty Johnson and freshman wide receiver Jeshaun Jones each have three.

15

Maryland has been perfect in the red zone so far this season, converting on all 15 of its opportunities inside the opponent's 20-yard line, making them the only team in the conference and one of only eight in the country to be perfect inside the 20. The Terps have scored touchdowns on 11 of the 15 trips to the red zone while kicking field goals on the other four.

100

The Terrapins have had two games this season in which two players recorded 100 yards on the ground. Most recently, Ty Johnson had 123 yards and Anthony McFarland posted 112 yards against Minnesota. Prior to that, Johnson (124) and Tayon Fleet-Davis (102) achieved the feat against Bowling Green. The Terps are one of four "Power-5" schools in the country to accomplish this feat (Mississippi State, Oregon, Kentucky), and the only school in the Big Ten.

ON THE DEFENSE/ST

True freshman placekicker Joseph Petrino is one of just two freshmen placekickers in the country to remain perfect on kicks this season (Coastal Carolina). Petrino has knocked down all five field goal attempts and all 25 extra point attempts to total 40 points. Petrino hit a career-long 40-yard field goal in the rain against Bowling Green on September 8. He is Maryland's first true freshman placekicker since Brad Craddock (2012), who went on to win the Lou Groza Award in 2014. Petrino is just one of just four kickers in the Big Ten to remain perfect on field goal attempts.

Senior safety Darnell Savage Jr. had two interceptions this past weekend against Rutgers, the first multi-interception game for a Terp since Sean Davis against USF on September 19, 2015.

Maryland's five interceptions against Rutgers are the most by a team in a Big Ten conference game since Penn State also picked off Rutgers five times on September 13, 2014. The Terps' five interceptions came from four different players at three different positions, two by senior safety Darnell Savage Jr. and one apiece by senior defensive lineman Byron Cowart, defensive back Tino Ellis and senior linebacker Tre Watson.

Junior Tino Ellis was sensational against Minnesota, recording a career-best five pass breakups. The mark is tied for the most in a single game across the country this season. The DeMatha product leads the team with eight pass breakups and has also recorded 13 tackles (all solo) and 3.0 tackles for loss.

6.5

A year removed from garnering All-Big Ten honors for leading Big Ten defensive backs in tackles for loss (9.5) in 2017, Antoine Brooks, Jr. has picked up right where he left off this season. Brooks wrapped up Big Ten Co-Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts in the win over Texas, and leads the team in tackles for loss with 6.5 through six games.

Against Rutgers, Maryland held the Scarlet Knights to just 2-for-16 passing for eight yards. The eight passing yards allowed are the lowest amount for a Terrapin opponent since at least 1980, with the closest number coming on September 6, 1997 when Maryland held Ohio to 10 yards. In addition, the two completions are the least amount since Maryland held No. 22 Michigan State to two last season.

Senior Ty Johnson sprang loose for a 98-yard kickoff return touchdown at Michigan in Week Five, marking the second of his career. Johnson is one of eight players in Maryland history to record multiple kickoff return touchdowns, and is looking to join Torrey Smith as the only players in program history with three kickoff return touchdowns. Johnson also vaulted from 10th in career kick return yards to seventh, currently standing at 1,152 yards.

12

The Terps have had at least one interception in each of the six games, totaling 12 on the season thus far, the second best mark in the country. It marks the most interceptions through six games for Maryland since posting 14 during that span in 2001. Senior Darnell Savage, Jr. leads the way with four interceptions this season, which is tied for the most in the country.

14

Junior punter Wade Lees has helped the Terps win the field position battle thus far in 2018, pinning the opponent inside the 20-yard line 14 times, after a career-best five this past weekend against Rutgers. This marks the second most punts inside the 20 in the conference, trailing only Illinois. Lees has only two touchbacks to go with that number and five 50-yard punts.

DJ DURKIN

Head Coach

Bowling Green '01 • 3rd Year at Maryland

DJ Durkin is entering his third season at the helm of the University of Maryland football program in 2018. Durkin doubled the Terrapins win total during his first season in College Park and has excelled on the recruiting trail, bringing in consecutive Top 30 signing classes for the first time in program history.

Regarded as one of the brightest young coaching minds in college football, Durkin was named the 36th head football coach in Maryland history on December 2, 2015. He quickly changed the culture and brought instant energy to the program.

Durkin improved the results on the field as well. The Terps started the 2016 season 4-0 and won five of their first seven games, including a victory over Michigan State.

Durkin guided Maryland to its 27th bowl game all-time when the Terps faced off against Boston College in the 2016 Quick Lane Bowl, which was played at Ford Field in Detroit.

After making great strides in 2016, Maryland started off Durkin's second season with a bang. The Terps traveled to No. 23 Texas and defeated the Longhorns, 51-41, in the 2017 season opener. It marked the first victory for Maryland over a ranked foe in seven years. The 51 points scored was the most for a Terps team against a ranked opponent in the history of the program.

An exciting 2-0 start to the year was quickly overshadowed by season-ending injuries to the top two quarterbacks on the roster. While playing statistically the nation's toughest schedule, the Terps ended the year 4-8 with wins over Texas, Towson, Minnesota and Indiana.

Durkin has continued developing professional players during his time at Maryland as a pair of Terps were chosen in the 2018 NFL Draft. Wide receiver DJ Moore, the 2017 Big Ten Receiver of the Year, was taken in the first round by the Carolina Panthers. Moore was the first wide receiver selected in the draft after leading the conference with a single-season Maryland record 80 receptions. Linebacker Jermaine Carter, Jr. was also taken by the Panthers in the fifth round of the 2018 draft.

Durkin has also showed his recruiting prowess by signing a consensus Top 20 class in 2017 and a consensus Top 30 class in 2018. Over the past two years, Durkin has signed 17 4-star student-athletes and eight members of the ESPN300. Durkin has also been able to keep the local DMV talent home, inking 16 Top 20 players from the state of Maryland and five Top 10 players from Washington D.C. over the last two years.

Prior to arriving in College Park, Durkin served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at the University of Michigan, leading a nationally-renowned defensive unit that ranked fourth in the country. Under Durkin, the Wolverines limited opponents to 17.2 points per game in 2015, in addition to shutting out three consecutive opponents – the longest such streak at Michigan in 35 years.

Durkin has also been an outstanding recruiter in his time as an assistant. At Florida, Durkin helped land four straight top-11 recruiting classes and was named Rivals.com's 2012 Recruiter of the Year as a result. In total, Durkin contributed to the impressive recruitment of nine five-star prospects on the defensive side of the ball during that stretch.

As the defensive coordinator at Florida from 2013-14, Durkin led the Gators to consecutive top-15 rankings in total defense with the 15th-best mark in the country in 2014 (329.0 ypg) and the eighth-best (314.2 ypg) in 2013.

Florida's 2014 team finished the year ranked in the top-10 in the nation in yards allowed per play (4.45), yards allowed per rush attempt (3.16) and yards allowed per pass attempt (5.9).

In Durkin's first season as defensive coordinator, Florida finished first in the SEC and seventh in the country in pass defense (171.8 yards per game), sixth in first downs allowed (16.1 per game) and 15th in scoring defense (21.1 points per game), while allowing only 27 touchdowns, the sixth fewest in the nation in 2013.

Durkin's coaching paid dividends at the next level when defensive tackle Dominique Easley was drafted by the New England Patriots in the first round of the 2014 NFL Draft.

From 2010-2012, Durkin served as special team coordinator and linebackers coach at Florida and coached under current Atlanta Falcons head coach Dan Quinn.

As linebackers coach, Durkin tutored Jon Bostic, who finished his career as a second-team All-SEC selection and was drafted in the second round of the NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears in 2013.

Under Durkin's tutelage, Stanford's defensive ends helped the Cardinal rank 11th nationally in sacks per game in 2007 and 2009.

At Stanford, Durkin helped the Cardinal bring in their highest ranked recruiting class in eight years in 2009.

As a graduate assistant at Notre Dame from 2003-04, Durkin worked primarily with defensive ends and helped develop Notre Dame all-time sack leader, All-Pro NFL defensive end and 2x Super Bowl champion Justin Tuck.

As a player, Durkin starred at Bowling Green as a starter at defensive end and outside linebacker from 1997-2000. He led the team in sacks in 1998 and served as a team captain for two seasons. Durkin was honored with numerous team awards including the Ken Schoeni Award for character and toughness, the Carlos Jackson Award personifying the values of a student-athlete and the Leadership Award.

Durkin played under Gary Blackney at Bowling Green. Blackney was Maryland's defensive coordinator from 2001-05.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business marketing from Bowling Green in 2001 and his master's degree in educational administration and supervision in 2004.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Durkin and his wife Sarah have one daughter, Abigail, and one son, Luke.

GAME 1

Sep. 1, 2018

Maryland 34, #23 Texas 29

LANDOVER, Md. - Maryland emerged from a trying off-season with an emotionally charged 34-29 upset of No. 23 Texas on Saturday, shaking off a lengthy weather delay to provide Matt Canada a satisfying victory in his debut at the Terrapins' interim coach.

After blowing a 24-7 lead, Maryland forced three turnovers in the final 6:09 and scored the game's final 10 points to stun the Longhorns in the opener for the second year in a row. This one was even more impressive because of what the Terrapins endured this summer.

Maryland has dedicated its season to offensive lineman Jordan McNair. The Terrapins paid tribute to McNair by lining up with 10 players on their first offensive play of the game. Maryland waited for a delay of game to be called, and Texas declined the penalty in a show of sportsmanship.

Freshman Jashaun Jones ran for a score, threw for one and caught a 65-yard TD pass. Quarterback Kasim Hill went 17 for 29 for 222 yards.

Texas took its first lead in the third quarter after Canada opted to keep his offense on the field for a fourth-and-1 from the Maryland 36. Hill was stuffed for no gain, and the Longhorns reached the end zone in four plays to make it 29-24.

After Hill directed a 79-yard drive that put the Terps back in front with 14:25 remaining, a potential thunderstorm caused a delay of 86 minutes.

Texas committed three turnovers following the stoppage.

The game began with teams putting up 21 points in just over seven minutes. Jones opened with a 28-yard touchdown run, Longhorns junior Devin Duvernay caught a 39-yard pass in the end zone and Jones followed with a TD catch.

Maryland 45, Bowling Green 14

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio. - Tayon Fleet-Davis rushed for 102 yards and two touchdowns, and Ty Johnson had 124 yards and another score as Maryland broke out in the second half and beat Bowling Green 45-14 on Saturday.

With Bowling Green leading 14-10 at halftime, Maryland (2-0) ripped off 35 unanswered points in the second half to cruise to the easy win.

Maryland overcame 14 penalties for 139 yards.

Maryland piled up 565 yards in total offense but didn't take the lead until there was 4:31 left in the third quarter. The Terps defense held Bowling Green to 158 total yards, including just 15 rushing and sacked quarterback Jarret Doege five times.

"They physically kicked our tails on both sides of the ball, up front offensively and defensively," Bowling Green coach Mike Jinks said.

The Terps, who upset Texas last week, took a 17-14 lead on a third-and-22 play when Jahrviss Davenport caught Kasim Hill's pass, broke several tackles and worked his way down the right sideline for the 22-yard touchdown. They put the game away with four rushing touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

"We had great determination to finish the game," Maryland coach Matt Canada said. "We were down 14-10 at the half for a multitude of reasons. We were shooting ourselves in the foot with the penalties. We came back and ran the football well."

Maryland finished the game with 444 rushing yards, which was the most for the program since totaling 445 against Virginia in 1999. Bowling Green was held to just 15 yards on the ground.

Temple 35, Maryland 14

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Despite recording defensive and special team touchdowns, Maryland (2-1) dropped a 35-14 decision to Temple (1-2) in the Terrapins' 2018 home opener Saturday afternoon at Capital One Field at Maryland Stadium.

Redshirt freshman running back Anthony McFarland rushed for a career-high 107 yards on 11 carries, while junior wide receiver DJ Turner hauled in four receptions, one shy of his career best.

Temple's Anthony Russo threw for 228 yards, while Ryquell Armstead rushed for 118 yards to pace the Owls.

Senior Darnell Savage, Jr. had a 23-yard interception return for a touchdown for Maryland's lone score of the first half.

Senior Jesse Aniebonam blocked a punt and returned it for a touchdown to pull the Terps to within 28-14, but Temple's Shaun Bradley returned an interception 78 yards for a touchdown with 4:11 left to seal the Owls victory.
