BIG TEN. BIG NEWS.

- Michigan advanced to its third consecutive WNIT semifinal on Saturday with an 80-62 home win over Virginia Tech, leading a strong Big Ten postseason run. To date, the eight Big Ten schools in postseason play have posted a 17-7 (.708) record (5-4 in the NCAA Tournament, 12-3 in the WNIT - the latter a Big Ten record for wins in one WNIT).
- Current Big Ten schools have advanced to the WNIT semifinals 14 times (as well as four times in the tournament's now-defunct predecessor, the National Women's Invitation Tournament), including each of the past four seasons (eventual champion Rutgers in 2014, plus Michigan from 2015-17). The Wolverines are the second program in the WNIT's modern history (1998-present) to advance to three consecutive semifinals, joining Illinois State (2009-11).
- A Big Ten-record nine schools won at least 20 games in 2016-17, with Iowa joining the group March 23 following its 80-62 victory over Colorado in the third round of the WNIT. The Big Ten has seen at least seven of its women's basketball programs win 20 games in each of the past four seasons, including a (then) Big Ten-record eight 20-win schools in 2013-14 and 2014-15. Indiana (23) and Michigan (26) have also set school records for wins in a season.
- Five Big Ten students received AP All-America honors Monday. Maryland's Brianna Jones was a first-team selection, Ohio State's Kelsey Mitchell made the second team, and Maryland's Shatori Walker-Kimbrough was a third-team choice. Michigan State's Tori Jankoska and Northwestern's Nia Coffey earned honorable mention All-America status.
- Eight Big Ten students earned WBCA All-Region 4 honors on March 23 — Indiana's Tyra Buss, Maryland's Brianna Jones and Shatori Walker-Kimbrough, Michigan's Katelynn Flaherty, Michigan State's Tori Jankoska, Northwestern's Nia Coffey, Ohio State's Kelsey Mitchell and Penn State's Teniya Page. The Big Ten has had at least one student from a current conference school go on to receive WBCA Coaches' All-America Team honors every year since 1999, with Mitchell (also a finalist for the Wade Trophy) the Big Ten's most recent WBCA All-America selection last season.
- Sixty-one Big Ten women's basketball students received Academic All-Big Ten honors, marking the 10th consecutive season at least 45 women's basketball students earned the award. That list, which featured students from all 14 Big Ten schools, includes Iowa's Ally Disterhoft, who is a two-time Academic All-America Team Member of the Year. Northwestern had a conference-high nine honorees on this year's Academic All-Big Ten Team, for which students must be letterwinners in at least their second academic year at their institution and carry a 3.0 cumulative GPA.
- Iowa's Ally Disterhoft is the fifth NCAA Division I women's basketball student to be a two-time Academic All-America Team Member of the Year when she was chosen for the honor on March 2 by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). Disterhoft joins such notables as Elena Delle Donne, Maya Moore and former Nebraska standout Karen Jennings as a two-time Academic All-America Team Member of the Year. Disterhoft was also a first-team Academic All-America selection this year (the third honor of her career), becoming the sixth three-time honoree from a Big Ten school and first since Penn State's Kelly Mazzante (2002-04). Indiana's Amanda Cahill and Minnesota's Carlie Wagner were third-team Academic All-America honorees (their first career citations), and Maryland's Kristen Confroy and Northwestern's Ashley Deary received CoSIDA Academic All-District plaudits.
- Maryland became the first Big Ten school to sweep the conference's women's basketball regular season and tournament championships in three consecutive seasons when it defeated Purdue in this year's Big Ten Tournament title game, 74-64 on March 5 at Bankers Life Fieldhouse in Indianapolis. The Terrapins shared this year's Big Ten Championship with Ohio State, which earned its Big Ten-record 15th title and first since 2010.
- For the first time, the Big Ten has five active 2,000-point scorers as Iowa's Ally Disterhoft, Maryland's Shatori Walker-Kimbrough, Michigan State's Tori Jankoska, Northwestern's Nia Coffey and Ohio State's Kelsey Mitchell all entered that elite club this season, with Michigan's Katelynn Flaherty joining in (see page 3 for a full list of the top active Big Ten scorers). The only other time in Big Ten women's basketball history the conference had three active 2,000-point scorers was 2003-04, when Penn State's Kelly Mazzante (2,919 points from 2001-04), Minnesota's Lindsay Whalen (2,285 points from 2001-04) and Purdue's Shereka Wright (2,251 from 2001-04) all reached the mark.
- Eleven Big Ten schools currently rank among the top 50 in the country in average attendance, including seven of the top 26. Michigan State ranks eighth nationally at 6,011 fans per game, followed by No. 9 Purdue, No. 11 Maryland, No. 13 Ohio State, No. 17 Nebraska, No. 19 Iowa and No. 26 Wisconsin. Minnesota (No. 33), Indiana (No. 37), Penn State (No. 41) and Michigan (No. 42) are also in the top 50 of the NCAA attendance rankings.
- Maryland center Brianna Jones and guard Shatori Walker-Kimbrough are among 10 finalists for the 2016-17 Senior CLASS Award, given annually to the nation's top senior who has made notable achievements in four areas of excellence: community, classroom, character and competition. Women's basketball students from two Big Ten schools have earned the award — Nebraska's Kelsey Griffin (2009-10) and Iowa's Samantha Logic (2014-15).

BIG LIFE. BIG STAGE. BIG TEN.

The Big Ten leads all conferences with 5.7 million alumni and nearly 580,000 students.

Big Life. Big Stage. Big Ten.

Since its inception in 1896, the pursuit and attainment of academic excellence has been a priority for every Big Ten member institution. But maintaining the conference's standard of competing at the highest level in athletics also endures as an important component of the Big Ten experience. Striking that balance between academics and athletics is integral to the Big Ten's identity. Recognized as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten strives for success from its students not only on the field and in the classroom, but around the world as well.

PREMIER ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS

The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all 14 Big Ten universities, which is widely considered to be the model for effective and voluntary collaboration among top research universities.

Every Big Ten Academic Alliance institution ranks among the top 78 universities in the nation according to the 2014 Academic Ranking of World Universities, including six in the top 25.

The Big Ten leads all conferences with more than 1,600 Academic All-Americans, including 48 honorees during the 2015-16 academic year.

Big Ten Academic Alliance schools annually conduct $10 billion in funded research, $5 billion more than any other conference.

A HISTORY OF ATHLETIC SUCCESS

Big Ten schools have won at least seven national championships in seven of the last eight academic years.

In the last three full academic years, current Big Ten institutions have claimed 23 team national championships in 14 different sports.

Over the last 10 full academic years, current Big Ten institutions have won 77 team national titles in 23 different sports.

BROAD-BASED PROGRAMMING

The Big Ten will administer over $200 million in direct financial support to more than 9,500 students competing in intercollegiate athletics for more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams in 42 different sports.

The Big Ten sponsors 28 official conference sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the addition of men's ice hockey and men's and women's lacrosse the last three years.

The Big Ten leads the nation in total students competing in intercollegiate athletics and participation opportunities, and sponsors more official sports than all conferences except the Ivy League.

Almost 1,400 Big Ten competitors have participated in the Olympics, winning more than 600 medals, including nearly 300 gold. In the 2016 Olympic Games, 159 representatives from Big Ten institutions including current or former students and coaches were members to Olympic teams. Big Ten Olympians collected 47 medals in Rio.

PASSIONATE FOLLOWING

The Big Ten leads all conferences with 5.7 million alumni and nearly 580,000 students.

Each year more than 11 million patrons attend Big Ten home contests, as the conference leads the nation in attendance for men's basketball, hockey, volleyball and wrestling.

LEADERS IN INNOVATION

Took part in the nation's first bowl game, winning the 1902 Rose Bowl Game, and signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl with permanent conference affiliations.

Awarded the first Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915, honoring outstanding seniors who demonstrated excellence in academics and athletics.

Formed the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, enlisting former students that competed in conference athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

Became the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

Implemented the first collegiate football system of instant replay in 2004, which the NCAA approved for use among all conferences in 2006.

Launched the Big Ten Network (BTN) in 2007, the first national conference-owned television network.

Began partnering with the Ivy League to study the effects of head injuries in sports in 2012.

Accepted Johns Hopkins University as the conference's first sport affiliate members in men's and women's lacrosse in 2013 and 2015, respectively.

EXTENSIVE TELEVISION EXPOSURE

Through the Big Ten's current media agreements with BTN, ABC/ESPN, CBS and FOX, nearly 1,400 Big Ten events are produced and distributed nationally and globally on an annual basis.

BTN is in more than 60 million homes across the United States and Canada. BTN2Go is BTN's digital extension, delivering live and on-demand programming to computers, smartphones and tablets. BTN Plus within BTN2Go streams hundreds of additional events each season.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

For more than 25 years, through the Big Ten's SCORE (Success Comes Out of Reading Everyday) program, the conference has partnered with Chicago elementary schools to improve reading performance.

Surrounding the Big Ten Football Championship Game and Basketball Tournaments, the conference has held numerous community initiatives, such as the Big Ten Career Expo, SaturDAY of Service and Youth Football Clinics. In addition, the Big Ten has hosted a downtown 5K, collaborated with a local breast cancer awareness group and provided unique event experiences for military veterans.

BIG LIFE. BIG STAGE. BIG TEN.

The Big Ten formed the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, enlisting former students that competed in conference athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.
