THE LEAD

Iowa State heads East to Iowa City as it faces Iowa in the annual Iowa Corn Cy-Hawk Series showdown. Kickoff from Kinnick Stadium is set for 3 p.m. with the game being televised by the Big Ten Network. ISU hasn't played at Kinnick Stadium since 2018 after the COVID-19 pandemic canceled the 2020 meeting.

KEY STORYLINES

- Iowa State started the season with an impressive 42-10 win against Southeast Missouri on Saturday at Jack Trice Stadium ... the Cyclones look to start 2-0 for the first time since 2012 ... the Cyclones last win in Kinnick Stadium was in 2014.
- Four Cyclones made their first career starts against SEMO, including QB Hunter Dekkers ... Dekkers was nearly flawless, finishing 25-for-31 for 293 yards and four touchdowns ... the four touchdown passes were the most-ever by a Cyclone QB in their first career start.
- Dekkers and star wide receiver Xavier Hutchinson showed just how strong their connection is, hooking up for three first-half touchdowns ... Hutchinson finished with eight catches for 128 yards and the three scores ... he was the first Cyclone receiver to register three TD grabs in the same game since Quenton Bundrage did it against Iowa in 2013.
- This marks the seventh season of the Matt Campbell era ... his .558 winning percentage is the best by a Cyclone coach since the Big Six was formed in 1928 ... he's got 43 wins, behind only Dan McCarney (56), who coached and played at Iowa before coming to Iowa State.
- Campbell is the second-longest tenured coach in the Big 12 Conference (Mike Gundy, OSU) ... his seven-year tenure equals the fourth-longest in program history.
- ISU has produced five consecutive winning seasons, matching the longest streak in school history (1923-1927).

MIDAMERICAN ENERGY FIELD AT JACK TRICE STADIUM/STARK PERFORMANCE CENTER

MIDAMERICAN ENERGY FIELD AT JACK TRICE STADIUM

MidAmerican Energy Field at Jack Trice Stadium has proven to be one of the most outstanding football structures in the country in its 48-year existence. With its remarkable sight lines and numerous renovations throughout the years to enhance the game day atmosphere, the stadium ranks as one of the nation's best football venues.

The 61,500-seat stadium is the third-largest in the Big 12 Conference. Construction on the stadium started on Oct. 26, 1973 with the first game in the facility played on Sept. 20, 1975, a 17-12 Cyclone win over Air Force. It was officially dedicated as Jack Trice Stadium in 1997 in honor of Jack Trice, Iowa State's first African-American student-athlete who died tragically from injuries sustained in a football game in 1923. Iowa State is the nation's only FBS school to have a stadium name dedicated to an African-American.

WHO WAS JACK TRICE?

Jack Trice was born in Hiram, Ohio, in 1902. Trice attended East Tech High School in Cleveland, where he was a star athlete. When his football coach, Sam Willaman, was named head coach at Iowa State, Trice and six other athletes followed him west, as Trice became the first African-American student-athlete in Iowa State history. Trice majored in animal husbandry and his goal was to settle in the South after his graduation and help the black farmers of that area. He was a very studious young man and despite his participation in intercollegiate athletics, Trice managed to pass 45 college credits with a 90 percent average. Because there were no athletic scholarships granted in those days, he worked odd jobs to finance his education and support his wife and mother.

On the gridiron, Trice was a stellar performer in the interior line in 1923. His promising career abruptly ended, however. Trice played in the season-opener, a 14-6 win over Simpson in Ames. He traveled to Minneapolis the following weekend to face a strong Gopher squad. It was during intermission that Trice began to complain of a sore left shoulder, but nevertheless, returned to action in the second half. Midway through the third quarter, a frustrated Minnesota team ran a play off left tackle. Trice immediately saw that he wouldn't be able to reach the ball carrier, so he threw himself in front of the Minnesota interference in a roll block. He was toppled over on his back and trampled on.

Trice wanted to continue playing but never returned to the game. Doctors at a Minneapolis hospital allowed Trice to return to Ames with the team, which lost the game 20-17. They declared his condition not so serious. Trice rode back on a pullman coach. He rested his body on a straw mattress and was immediately taken to the university hospital upon his arrival in Ames. There, doctors discovered a broken collarbone Trice had sustained during the first half of the contest. His condition worsened as he developed respiratory problems Sunday afternoon, and a stomach specialist from Des Moines was summoned. Dr. Oliver Fay decided that surgery would be too risky, so no operation was performed.

At 3 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 8, 1923, Jack Trice died of hemorrhaged lungs and internal bleeding throughout the abdomen. The following Tuesday, classes were postponed and a funeral service was held before 4,000 students and faculty members on the central grounds of campus.

A letter written by Jack Trice to himself on the eve of the Minnesota game was found in his coat pocket the day of his funeral. The contents of that letter were divulged before the 4,000 mourners. It read:

"My thoughts just before the first real college game of my life: The honor of my race, family and self is at stake. Everyone is expecting me to do big things. I will. My whole body and soul are to be thrown recklessly about the field. Every time the ball is snapped, I will be trying to do more than my part. Fight low, with your eyes open and toward the play. Watch out for crossbucks and reverse end runs. Be on your toes every minute if you expect to make good. Jack."

A memorial scholarship was created, and a memorial to Trice is located on the east concourse of the football stadium as you enter the Jack Trice Club. A statue in his honor was unveiled in 1987 and currently resides on central campus, and a second statue will be installed in front of the stadium in the fall of 2022.

Iowa State unveiled its new stadium in 1975 and it was originally named Cyclone Stadium. Gradually, the Trice story started to become more prevalent.

A strong push from students and alumni to dedicate the stadium in honor of Trice gained traction in the early 1980s. Iowa State President Dr. Robert Parks announced the facility name would change to Cyclone Stadium at Jack Trice Field prior to the 1984 season.

A groundswell of support for Trice continued, however. Supporters felt Trice's name should be the primary focus of the stadium. Finally, in 1997, President Dr. Martin Jischke officially dedicated Iowa State's football venue as Jack Trice Stadium.

This massive upgrade created multiple spaces for use by all student-athletes, as well as the addition of the Albaugh Family Plaza north of Jack Trice Stadium for all Cyclones to enjoy.

New or upgraded amenities include: football locker room, football player's lounge, nutrition center, sports medicine center, football offices, student-athlete life skills center, student-athlete academic center and student-athlete dining hall.

LAST TIME OUT

- Iowa State defeated Southeast Missouri, 42-10, in the season opener at Jack Trice Stadium ... it was ISU's biggest offensive outburst in an opener since 2017 (vs. UNI) and largest margin of victory (+32) in the first game since 2001 (45-0 vs. UNI).
- Hunter Dekkers completed 81 percent of his passes and threw for 293 yards and four touchdowns in his first career start ... the four passing TDs are the most by any ISU QB in his first career start and only Kyle Kempt (2017 vs Oklahoma) threw for more yards (dating back to 1999) ... in fact, his four touchdown passes were the most by any Cyclone QB in a season opener.
- Jirehl Brock rushed for 104 yards, including 99 in the second half, to become just the second Cyclone in the last 10 years to rush for 100 yards in a season opener (Breece Hall, 2020) ... his total rushing yardage was the most for an ISU player on opening day since Shontrelle Johnson had 120 yards against Tulsa in 2012.
- Xavier Hutchinson was the main recipient of Dekkers' passing last Saturday ... he was targeted 10 times and finished with eight receptions for 128 yards and three touchdowns ... the three TD receptions were the most by a Cyclone since Quenton Bundrage against Iowa in 2013 ... he's just the sixth Cyclone receiver with three TD catches in a game since the turn of the century ... the 128 receiving yards were the fourth-most in a season opener in ISU history ... he's one of four receivers nationally with three touchdowns in a game this season.
- Redshirt junior DeShawn Hanika, who has had to bide his time behind a pair of NFL tight ends, got into the end zone for the first time on a nine-yard pass from Dekkers.
- The Cyclone defensive unit allowed 320 yards of total offense and just one score on a drive that didn't start on their half of the field ... ISU had one takeaway as defensive lineman Tyler Onyedim caught a ball that was deflected at the line of scrimmage by LB Colby Reeder, stymying an opening drive that had marched into the ISU red zone.
- The Cyclones were 4-for-4 in the red zone, with a pair of rushing TDs and passing TDs.
- Isaiah Lee blocked a SEMO FGA in the second quarter, ISU's first since 2020 (Enyi Uwazurike).
- Freshman Jace Gilbert made all six of his PATs ... ISU did not attempt a FG.
- Freshman Tyler Perkins' first career punt went for 50 yards and he averaged 46.7 yards on three tries (one I20).
