The Opening Kick

- The Flashes are coming off a 60-10 home opening victory over VMI. The Flashes rushed for 494 yards in the win, the most in a game since 1954.
- The 494 yards are the most in a game so far in this young FBS season, as do Kent State's seven rushing touchdowns in a game
- Kent State leads the FBS with a 360 rushing yard per game average
- Kent State finished third last year in rushing yards per game averaging 283. This season, they rushed for 494 against VMI and 226 against Texas A & M, the most allowed by the Aggies in nearly two years
- The Golden Flashes' rushing attack returns all four of their leading rushers (three running backs plus Dustin Crum)
- Marquez Cooper, Dustin Crum and Xavier Williams are all averaging over 60 yards rushing per game and the team is averaging nearly seven yards per carry
- Kent State brings back the vast majority of its starters on offense and defense in 2021. The Flashes will bring back 19 of 25 starters in 2021 including nine each on the offense and defense
- Headlining the returners is quarterback Dustin Crum, Crum was named to six different watch lists in 2020 and produced a 12:2 TD/INT ratio and led the MAC in completion percentage at 73.2
- Since becoming the starter in week two of 2019, Crum has thrown 33 touchdowns against just six interceptions
- The veteran defense has swarmed to the ball this season, they lead the FBS with eight interceptions
- Montre Miller and Elvis Hines are tied for second in the NCAA with three picks each
- Twenty-one of the returning Golden Flashes (26%) have already earned their undergraduate degree and are either in post-graduate or graduate school classes this fall
- One of those graduates is wide receiver Isaac Vance, who has had a busy offseason. Vance has been named to the NCAA Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) as he serves as the president of SAAC at Kent State and sits on the MAC's executive SAAC board. Vance also is one of two student-athletes that sits on the Division-I Football Oversight Committee

Kent State Media Services

Notes and Releases

Updated Kent State football game notes are available in PDF format at www.kentstatesports.com. To receive the notes via email, contact Director of Athletics Communications Dan Griffin at 330.672.8468 or dgriff34@kent.edu.

Media Credentials

All members of the media wishing to cover games in a working capacity must submit a request to cover the game through KentStateSports.com or by emailing Dan Griffin at Dgriff34@kent.edu. NO season credentials will be given due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Media members will have their name on a check-in list outside of the stadium on the day of the game. ALL media must be screened, cleared and be wearing a wrist band before entering the stadium. Space in the press box is EXTREMELY limited this season and will be handled on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Press Conferences

Head Coach Sean Lewis will hold a virtual press conference after every game as well as a weekly press conference. The day of the press conference will be two days after the previous week's game. All press conferences will be password protected, if you would like to attend a press conference, please email DGriff34@kent.edu with your name and affiliation, and a password will be provided. All press conferences will be recorded and uploaded to our YouTube channel, GoldenFlashesTV.

Weekday Interview Schedule

All interviews with Kent State players and coaches must be coordinated through the Athletic Communications office. Due to COVID-19 protocol, practices will be closed to the media for the season. All interviews will be done via Zoom or by phone.

College Press Box

Collegepressbox is the official media website for Division I football. Access and download game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for all FBS schools, conferences, postseason games, awards and the College Football Playoff. For access, please register for an account at collegepressbox.com/register.

Professional Scout Policy

Professional scouts may receive credentials by sending a request via email to Director of Athletic Communications Dan Griffin at (dgriff34@kent.edu). With social distancing policies in effect for the 2021 season, seats inside the press box will be extremely limited. If no seating in the press box is available, scouts will be given seats in the west side stands.

Stats

In an effort to stay physically distant, eliminate touch points and in accordance with MAC protocols, all stats will be uploaded as a PDF immediately to the Kent State Football Page under "Football Media Links".

Website

Up-to-date Kent State football information is available via the official athletics department web site at www.kentstatesports.com. Updated results and statistics are available as well as releases, team roster, player bios, coaching staff bios and game recaps. The website also features real-time statistics for home games plus links to broadcasts of all games on the Kent State App.

GO FLASHES App

Your one-stop digital shop for all things Kent State is available with the GoFlashes app for IOS and Android. With the app, you can access the latest in Kent State Athletics news, stats and more. The "GameDay Hub" feature will have streaming information, game programs and social media updates. Simply search Kent State in the App Store or Google Play store and download for free.

KENT STATE FOOTBALL

2021 Season

Contact (Dan Griffin) | Dgriff34@kent.edu | 330-814-5921

Week Three at Iowa

KENT STATE

Kent State University respectfully requests that the institution and its intercollegiate athletics teams be referred to as "Kent State" or "KSU" in shortened reference, as opposed to "Kent." Thank you.

FLASH FAST OFFENSE

Kent State was the only FBS team to average over 600 yards of total offense in 2020, averaging 606.5 yards per game and led the FBS in scoring offense at 49.5 points per game. This season, the Flashes topped 60 points for the fifth time in school history and FOURTH in the Lewis/FlashFAST era in the 60-10 win over VMI.

RUSH HOUR

The Kent State offensive outburst was led by a rushing attack that finished third in the FBS at 283 rushing yards per game. Kent State had four backs that averaged over 50 yards per game on the ground and all four return for the 2021 season. Marquez Cooper led the team with 282 yards and five touchdowns, while Xavier Williams led the team averaging 8.0 yards per carry. Kent State runningbacks collectively averaged 5.7 yards per carry last year.

In week one, the Golden Flashes rushed for 226 yards, the most the Aggies have allowed since October of 2019. Leading a balanced attack, Xavier Williams averaged over nine yards per carry and totaled 73 rushing yards against A & M.

In week two, the Golden Flashes set a pair of NCAA season highs. The Flashes 494 yards and the ground and SEVEN different players scored a rushing touchdown top the FBS so far this season.

REFUSING to CRUM-ble

The now graduate student helped engineer the Nation's top offense in total yards per game (606.5) and points per game (49.8). Crum was a big reason for those gaudy numbers, he averaged 295 yards passing per game last season and added another 60 yards per game rushing.

The Grafton, Ohio native completed 73.5 percent of his passes while tossing 12 touchdowns against two interceptions in the Flashes' four games last season. His 73.5 percent completion percentage tied for second in the FBS, his 192.75 pass efficiency rating was fourth while his 295 yards per game ranked 14th. Since stepping in as the starter in week two of 2019, Crum has thrown 33 touchdown passes against just six interceptions.

As a result, Crum has been named pre-season first team by Athlon Sports and Phil Steele and has landed on a laundry list of pre-season watch lists including: College Football Performance, Davey O'Brien, Manning, Walter Camp, Maxwell and Awards and has earned a spotlight as a player to watch for the Senior Bowl.

MOVING THE CHAINS

Kent State stayed "on schedule" in 2020, ranking second in the FBS by converting 56 percent of their third-down opportunities. When called upon, the Flashes were even better on fourth down, converting seven-of-eight chances. That 87.5 percent mark was good for third in the FBS. This season, Kent State is 100 percent on fourth down (3-3) and converting almost 52 percent of third downs (18-35)

CLOSING IN RECORD FASHION

Kent State scored 172 points in their last three games of 2020. That set a new Mid-American Conference record for the most points over a three game span.

IT'S BEEN A WHILE

Kent State's 3-1 2020 season was the first time the Flashes were 3-1 since the 2012 season. That year Kent State ripped off 10-straight wins after a 1-1 start. Prior to the 2012 season, the previous time the Golden Flashes were 3-1 was 1987 when Glen Mason led the Flashes to that start en route to a 7-4 season. Outside of 2012, you'd have to go back to 1977 when the Flashes started 4-1.

SAME PLACE, NEW FACE

Kent State welcomes in 10 transfers for the 2021 season, here are the veterans who joined the Golden Flashes for 2021

up one pass... Recorded season-high game against Frostburg State (11/2/19) in which he posted six tackles and 1.5 sacks... Named to Conference Honor Roll...Sports Management and Business major

RETURNING PRODUCTION

While the Flashes are bringing in 10 transfers to the squad in 2021, the Golden Flashes return their top two quarterback, top four running backs, three of four top receivers and seven lineman who saw action in 2020.

Defensively, the Golden Flashes bring back their top four tacklers from last season, led by Dean Clark. The pass rush returns as well with the Flashes' top four in sacks also returning

YOU CAN FIND ME IN THE CLUB

Club Tub and Club Dub are mainstays for the Golden Flashes. Club Tub is the end of camp practice competition between the offense and the defense. Winning unit gets the bluetooth speaker and juice box for the post-practice ice bath. Club Dub is the post-game locker room celebration after a victory. The music blares and disco ball spins as the Flashes celebrate a hard-earned victory.

POSSIBILITIES ARE (ALMOST) ENDLESS

Using the mantra, "Look Good, Feel Good, Play Good" the Golden Flashes will never wear the same uniform combination in the same season. That week's uniform combination is typically released on social media on the eve of that week's game. Here is a look at every combination the Flashes have used since switching to Under Armour in 2016 and their record in that uniform combination (bold is the projected uniform combo for the week):

FAMOUS FLASHES

The Golden Flashes have a number of famous alumni who have suited up for Kent State

Lou Holtz ('59)

The legendary coach was a tight end in the mid-50s for the Golden Flashes

Jack Lambert

The hall of fame linebacker played for the Golden Flashes from 1970-73...totaled 593 tackles in his career...came to Kent State as a quarterback before moving to linebacker

Don James

The hall of fame head coach helped lead the Golden Flashes to their first MAC title in 1972, and earned Coach of the Year honors...Later coached the Washington Huskies winning a national title in 1991

Gary Pinkel

Another hall of fame coach, Pinkel was a stand-out tight end in the 1970s and an All-American in 1973. Later a grad assistant and full time assistant for James at Washington. Went on to coach Toledo and Missouri

Nick Saban

Before his coaching career, Saban suited up at safety for the Flashes, earned three letters in football (70-72) and one in baseball. He went on to become a defensive assistant for Don James and has gone on to above average success as a head coach coaching Toledo, Michigan State, LSU, Alabama and the Miami Dolphins

James Harrison

Named first-team All-MAC in 2001, Harrison was a standout linebacker and pass rusher from 1999-2001 at Kent State. Closed his career with a five-sack performance against Ben Roethlisberger and Miami of Ohio. The five sacks remains a Kent State single-game record

Antonio Gates

More famously known for his work with the San Diego Chargers, Gates was an All-American forward at Kent State. He reached the 1,000 points club in just two seasons with the Golden Flashes and helped Kent State to the elite 8 in 2002.

Josh Cribbs

An electrifying playmaker, Cribbs had two 1,000 yard rushing and passing seasons and totaled over 10,000 yards of offense and went on to a pro-bowl career with the Browns and Jets

Julian Edelman

A three-year starting quarterback, Edelman still ranks in the Kent State top-10 in rushing and passing. New England drafted Edelman as a receiver in the 7th round and he became the first MAC player to win Super Bowl MVP

Usama Young

Young led the Flashes in interceptions as a sophomore and was first-team All-MAC as a senior. Taken in the 3rd round by New Orleans, Young was a member of the 2008 Super Bowl team and is the Saints career leader in special team tackles

Dri Archer

Archer set the MAC record for single-season touchdown with 24 in 2012 and closed the season with over 1400 rushing. He was a consensus All-American as a returner as well, averaging over 28 yards a return and 4 return touchdowns in his career

Rosie Nix

Nix had four first-team All-MAC seasons as a defensive lineman and finished his career with 65 tackles for loss and 25 sacks, both amongst the career leaders at Kent State. Went on to a All-Pro career as a fullback with Pittsburgh and Indianapolis

Brian Winters

Winters started every game during his four-year career and was a three-time All-MAC offensive lineman. He was taken in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Jets and has played for New York, Buffalo and Arizona

BREAKING THROUGH

The 51-41 victory in the Tropical Smoothie Cafe Frisco Bowl was the first bowl victory in school history. In 97 previous seasons, the Flashes were 0-3 prior to last year's victory. The Flashes lost to Delaware in the 1954 Refrigerator Bowl in Evansville, Indiana, lost to the University of Tampa in the 1972 Tangerine (now Citrus) Bowl and to Arkansas State in the 2012 GoDaddy Bowl.

FlashFAST

Kent State employs what is called a FlashFAST style of play, referring to their up-tempo offense and attacking defense. Additionally, FlashFAST is the overall mantra of the team with FAST standing for Fun, Accountable, Smart and Tough.

GOLDEN STANDARD

Kent State head coach Sean Lewis reserves the single digits for players that have met the "golden standards" of the team, both on and off the field. This season, KJ Sherald and Dustin Crum return as golden standard players from 2020. Joining them for 2021 are Marquez Cooper (#1), Xavier Williams (#2) and Dean Clark (#3).

Honoring #54 Jason Bitsko

On Aug. 20, 2014 during a preseason practice, Kent State's football team received tragic news of the unexpected overnight death of Jason Bitsko. The fourth-year junior was slated to be the team's center after starting 12 games at right tackle in 2013. Bitsko had become a team leader, mentor and friend to many both on and off the field. In Bitsko's honor, the number 54 is now worn by a select offensive lineman every season. In 2018 and 19, Nate Warnock was chosen by teammates and coaches to wear the jersey. In previous years, it was worn by Reno Reda, Stefano Millin and Nathan Puthoff. In 2014, 54 was displayed on one side of every player's helmet throughout the year. Coach Sean Lewis treats #54 as the Golden Standard number for the offensive line, this season Sam Allan will wear number 54.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

The Golden Flashes enjoyed their most successful academic semester on record in the spring of 2020. Adapting well to the remote learning, online format, the Flashes posted the highest team grade-point average on record at 3.27. Twenty-One Golden Flashes have earned their undergraduate degree and will be attending post-grad or graduate school in 2021.

The "James Gang" Coaching Tree

Two players from Don James' 1972 squad (he himself a member of the College Football Hall of Fame) have gone on to find great coaching success of their own. Current Alabama head coach Nick Saban (defensive back, 1970-73) won a national championship with LSU in 2003 and five more with Alabama, while Gary Pinkel (tight end, 1971-73) directed Missouri to a school-record 12 victories in 2007, finishing the season fourth in the final Associated Press poll after being ranked No. 1 earlier in the year, and is on this year's ballot for the College Football Hall of Fame. Dan Dorazio, who was a student assistant under James, has coached for over 40 years in the CFL, and Dom Capers (graduate assistant, 1972-74) who recently retired as Green Bay Packers defensive coordinator, also worked under James.

Furthermore, Bob Stoops – who led Oklahoma to the 2000 national title – got his full-time coaching start as an assistant at Kent State in 1988.

In addition to College Football Hall of Fame inductee Lou Holtz, the list also includes former head coach Glen Mason (1986-87), who went on to find success at Minnesota. Long-time NFL coordinator Dean Pees served as the Kent State head coach from 1998 to 2003 before leaving to start that lengthy NFL tenure.

Steve Harvey Scholarship

Kent State linebacker Anthony Morris (#51) is one of the recipients of the Steve and Marjorie Harvey Foundation Scholarship. Morris, a Cleveland Glenville High School graduate, like Harvey, appeared on Harvey's talk show, "Steve" in June of 2019 to accept the scholarship. Harvey attended Kent State University before going on to a career in comedy, tv and film. He is best known for being the current host of Family Feud. Morris got his first live action against Bowling Green, seeing action in the fourth quarter. Morris, a nursing major, has professional goals to be a pediatric nurse.

Double Cheeseburger

On May 22, 2019, Twisted Meltz in Kent, Ohio named the "Sean Lewis" as its newest signature sandwich. The Sean Lewis is a double cheeseburger with bacon and jalapenos. Lewis joins the ranks of esteemed Kent State greats such as Josh Cribbs, Lou Holtz, Nick Saban and Dri Archer to have sandwiches named after them.

Week Three at Iowa

Sean
LEWIS

Head Coach • 4th Season (Wisconsin)

Sean Lewis became Kent State University's 22nd head football coach on Dec. 21, 2017. Lewis also works with the Golden Flashes' quarterbacks. He is entering his third season as head coach and remains one of the youngest coaches in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) at 35 years old.

In a shortened 2020 season, Lewis guided the Golden Flashes to a 3-1 record, securing the first back-to-back winning seasons at Kent State for the first time since the 1976-77 seasons. The FlashFAST offense took another big stride in the four games, leading the FBS in total offense (606.5 yards per game) and scoring offense (49.75 points per game). Highlighting the record-setting season was when Kent State tied the program single-game record in points (69) and touchdowns (10) in the Wagon Wheel rivalry victory. The win gave Kent State back-to-back wins in the rivalry game for the first time since 2012.

In just his second season, Lewis orchestrated one of the best turnarounds in college football. Kent State's five-win improvement to 7-6 was tied for eighth-best in the FBS in 2019. Capping the turnaround was a 51-41 victory in the Tropical Smoothie Cafe Frisco Bowl. It was the first bowl win in school history and the fourth bowl in program history and first since 2012. Kent State went 5-3 in Mid-American Conference play, the five wins in conference play were the most since that magical 2012 season.

Highlighting the five victories was a 30-27 comeback win at home versus Buffalo. The Golden Flashes trailed 27-6 with under eight minutes remaining and won the game in regulation. It marked the largest comeback in Kent State history and the largest fourth-quarter comeback this season.

The Flashes placed six players on the All-Conference list, headlined by sophomore kicker Matthew Trickett who was named Special Teams Player of the Year.

The offense continued to take big strides in 2019, improving from 22 points per game in conference play in 2018 to over 34 points in 2019. The Flashes had two games with over 600 yards of total offense including a 750-yard outburst against Bowling Green. The 750 yards are the most in an FBS regulation game in the 2019 season.

Highlighting that turnaround was the emergence of junior quarterback Dustin Crum. The signal caller led the MAC in quarterback rating (159.2) and completion percentage (69.3) while posting a 20:2 touchdown to interception ratio.

In his first season at Kent State, Lewis engineered a drastic offensive improvement from the previous season. The 2018 campaign saw the Flashes improve in scoring offense by 11.2 points per game and also a whopping 108.4 yards per game. He recorded his first career win in the home opener with a 54-14 triumph against Howard. Kent State posted more than 50 points for the first time since 2008 and the first time at Dix Stadium since 2004. Lewis also guided the Flashes to a road victory over Bowling Green, the first since 2012, in his return to the school where he served as co-offensive coordinator.

Recruiting has also taken an uptick since Lewis arrived in Kent. After he was hired in December, Lewis immediately hit the recruiting trail and put together the fifth ranked recruiting class in the MAC according to 247sports in just over a month. His 2019 class was ranked by 247sports as the fourth best in the conference.

Lewis brought an extensive coaching résumé to Kent State and has been one of the fastest-rising coaches in the nation over the last decade. He came to the Golden Flashes after serving as the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under Dino Babers at Syracuse. Lewis' background stretches from his four-year playing career at the University of Wisconsin under Barry Alvarez, to winning the 2015 Mid-American Conference (MAC) Championship as the co-offensive coordinator at Bowling Green.

That ascension led Lewis to becoming the youngest Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) head coach in the nation at the age of 31. That distinction was previously held by the University of Oklahoma's Lincoln Riley at age 34.

Lewis spent his previous six seasons alongside head coach Babers at Syracuse (2016-17), Bowling Green (2014-15) and Eastern Illinois (2012-13).

"We are thrilled to bring Sean to Kent State," Director of Athletics Joel Nielsen said. "Sean brings an innovative style of football to Kent State with an offensive system that is proven in the MAC. We are confident Sean can build broad support and engagement in our program along with competitive success."

In 2017, Syracuse put up 40 or more points in three games and knocked off defending national champion Clemson 27-24 on Oct. 13. Syracuse's offense averaged 456.3 yards and 24.4 first downs per game.

Those numbers were fueled by a fast-paced offense that led the nation in offensive snaps per game (87.8). Wide receiver Steve Ishmael broke the single-season program records for catches (105) and yards (1,347), earned second-team All-America honors and was a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award. Wide receiver Ervin Philips earned All-ACC Second Team honors and was named Walter Camp Connecticut Player of the Year after making 89 catches for 904 yards.

During Lewis' first season with the Orange in 2016, its offense set or tied over 40 program records including most passing yards in a season (3,855). Syracuse quarterbacks ranked 11th in the nation in passing. Its 5,290 yards of total offense were the second most in program history.

In 2015, Bowling Green ranked fourth in the nation in total offense (546.8) and sixth in scoring offense (42.2 ypg). Lewis served as co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Matt Johnson, that season's MAC Offensive Player of the Year. Johnson finished second in the nation in both passing yards (4,946) and touchdowns (46).

All-American wide receiver Roger Lewis finished second in the nation in receiving yards (1,544) and third in touchdown catches (16). One year earlier, the Falcons won a MAC East title and the Camellia Bowl.

Lewis coached tight ends and inside receivers at Eastern Illinois. The Panthers made the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) playoffs both seasons and reached the quarterfinals in 2013 with a 12-2 mark. Eastern Illinois' offense was led by San Francisco 49ers' quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo.

A tight end and quarterback at Wisconsin, Lewis was a two-time Academic All-Big Ten selection under Alvarez. Current Wisconsin Badger head coach Paul Chryst served as his offensive coordinator and position coach.

Lewis' coaching career began as the offensive coordinator for his alma mater, Richards High School in Illinois. Richards was led by veteran Gary Korhonen, who earned National High School Coach of the Year honors from both the National Football Hall of Fame and the National High School Coaches Association. Lewis transitioned to the college level in 2010 as tight ends coach at Division II Nebraska Omaha. He made his first MAC stop in 2011 as a graduate assistant for Akron.

Lewis earned a bachelor's degree from Wisconsin in agricultural sciences in 2007. He and his wife, Sarah, have two children.

Week Three at Iowa

Tom Kaufman joined Kent State in January of 2018 as associate head coach and defensive coordinator as well as the inside linebackers coach.

In the shortened 2020 season, Kaufman's defense held opponents to a mere two passing touchdowns and 648 total passing yards over four games, with the Flashes going 3-1 in the process. Over the final three games of the year, opposing offenses failed to score a single touchdown through the air. Additionally, on the ground, in the first contest of the season against Eastern Michigan, Kaufman's defense kept the Eagles to 61 rushing yards.

In Kaufman's second season as the defensive coordinator, he and the Golden Flashes won the first bowl game in program history with a 51-41 victory over Utah State in the Tropical Smoothie Cafe Frisco Bowl. Kaufman's defense secured the Flashes spot in the program's fourth bowl game with an interception against Eastern Michigan as time winded down.

Timely takeaways were a large part of the Flashes success in 2019 as Kent State ranked 27th in the country in turnover margin (+6). The defense flashed when it needed to and resulted in two players grabbing all-MAC honors. Jamal Parker earned a spot on the all-MAC second team for his play at the third level. His 10 pass breakups ranked fourth in the conference while his three interceptions tied for fifth in the MAC, leading the Flashes in both categories. Theo Majette anchored the Flashes defensive line, earning third-team All-MAC honors and registering a team-high 5.5 sacks to go along with 40 tackles and a forced fumble.

Kaufman's transitioned the defense to a 3-4 scheme and in his first year at Kent State saw defensive tackle Kalil Morris named to the All-MAC Second Team and sign with the Baltimore Ravens. The defense held two opponents under 100 rushing yards for the first time since 2016.

Kaufman spent the 2017 season as defensive coordinator at Chattanooga. The Mocs led the Southern Conference in total defense allowing just 326.4 yards per game and 309.6 yards per contest in conference games.

Chattanooga also led the SoCon in pass defense and ranked second in first downs allowed. Four Mocs on defense earned all-conference honors and senior linebacker Tae Davis was selected to play in the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl.

In 2016, Kaufman served as special teams coordinator and linebackers coach at Syracuse alongside Sean Lewis. Two Syracuse linebackers and two specialists earned All-ACC honors under Kaufman's guidance, while the Orange punt return unit ranked fourth in the nation. Prior to Syracuse, Kaufman and Lewis spent four seasons together at Bowling Green (2014-15) and Eastern Illinois (2012-13) under Dino Babers.

While at Bowling Green, Kaufman directed the Falcons' defensive line and special teams. The Falcons won back-to-back East Division titles, the 2014 Camellia Bowl and the 2015 MAC Championship Game.

Eastern Illinois won back-to-back Ohio Valley Conference championships in 2012-13 with Kaufman serving as linebackers coach. The Panthers finished 12-2 in 2013, advancing to the FCS quarterfinals.

Kaufman was a quality control coach at Texas in 2011 and Kansas in 2010. He served as a graduate assistant at Mississippi State in 2009. He also coached six seasons (2003-08) at the Division III level, spending time at Heidelberg, Case Western Reserve and Chicago, where he served as defensive coordinator. In 2008, seven players on Chicago's defense earned all-conference honors.

Kaufman played at John Carroll from 1999-2002 and earned his undergraduate degree in 2003 as an English major. He earned a master's degree from Heidelberg in 2005. Tom and his wife Stephanie, have two sons, Jack and Max.

Andrew Sowder joined Kent State in January of 2018 as offensive coordinator. He also works with quarterbacks and tight ends. In 2020, Sowder's third year managing the Golden Flashes offense, he helped Kent State achieve a 3-1 record in the shortened season. The Flashes averaged the most total yards per game in the entire MAC at 606.5. They also led the conference in average points scored per game with 49.8. Four Kent State players earned All-MAC honors, and they were all on the offensive side of the ball and under Sowder's watch: quarterback Dustin Crum, wide receiver Isaiah McKoy, and offensive linemen Bill Kuduk and Nathan Monnin. Crum and McKoy were both named to the first team.

Sowder's second year at the helm of the Kent State offense was one to be remembered, in large part to the emergence of Dustin Crum. The rising star quarterback threw for 2,625 yards, completing 69 percent of his pass attempts, throwing for 20 touchdowns and only two interceptions. Crum ranked 11th in the country in passing efficiency and was the only quarterback in the country to throw for more than 20 touchdowns with two or fewer interceptions.

The Golden Flashes and Crum continued their offensive dominance with a 50-burger in the Tropical Smoothie Cafe Frisco Bowl. The 51-41 victory earned Kent State its first ever bowl win. Crum was 21-for-26 with 289 yards and two touchdowns through the air, while adding another 147 yards and a touchdown on the ground. The historic offense totaled 550 yards in the game.

The offense is not only lighting it up on the field, but also cementing themselves in the Kent State history books. The Golden Flashes' offense averaged 405.6 yards per game, which ranks third in program history. The 905 plays ran also rank third all-time. The 2,849 passing yards rank second in Kent State history and the 42 total touchdowns ranks fifth.

The Flashes' offense put two wide receivers on the all-MAC third team, Isaiah McKoy and Mike Carrigan. McKoy led the Flashes with 56 receptions, 872 yards and eight touchdowns, cracking the top-10 in program history in all three categories. McKoy also led the Mid-American Conference with 72.7 yards per game as well as touchdowns. Carrigan caught 44 balls for 570 yards and five touchdowns.

In his first year as offensive coordinator at Kent State, Sowder saw an increase of 11.2 points per game from the previous season, and a massive 108.4 yards per game jump. The 383.3 yards per game is the fifth most in program history and he oversaw first year quarterback Woody Barrett complete 229 passes, the most in school history.

Sowder came to Kent by way of San Jose State where he served as the team's offensive coordinator and tight ends coach in 2017, implementing the spread offense. Prior to San Jose State, Sowder was at the University of Texas for one season as an offensive quality control coach, working primarily with the wide receivers.

Prior to Texas, Sowder spent four seasons alongside Kent State head coach Sean Lewis at Bowling Green (2014-15) and Eastern Illinois (2012-13) under Dino Babers.

As Bowling Green's wide receivers coach, Sowder helped the Falcons to back-to-back MAC East Division titles, a 2014 Camellia Bowl win and the 2015 MAC Championship. He also served as director of player personnel and recruiting coordinator for the Falcons in 2014. In 2015, Bowling Green ranked fourth in the nation in total offense (546.8) and sixth in scoring offense (42.2 ppg). All-American wide receiver Roger Lewis finished second in the nation in receiving yards (1,544) and third in touch-down catches (16).

In 2012 and 2013, Eastern Illinois won back-to-back Ohio Valley Conference championships while Sowder served as wide receivers coach. Eastern Illinois was the FCS national leader in total offense in 2013 after ranking seventh in 2012.

Prior to Eastern Illinois, Sowder coached running backs at West Texas A&M in 2011. The Buffs won the Kanza Bowl and ranked 14th in the nation in total offense.

A 2011 Baylor University graduate, Sowder majored in digital media. His coaching career began as a student assistant on Art Briles staff in 2009. In 2010, the Bears played in the Texas Bowl, the program's first postseason appearance in 16 years.

As a player at Baylor, Sowder was both a wide receiver and tight end in 2007 and 2008.

Sowder grew up in Shallowater, Texas. He married his wife Shawna in May of 2021.

Zac Barton joined Kent State in January of 2018 as special teams coordinator.

Barton's special teams unit went 4-6 on field goal attempts in 2020, in the shortened season in which Kent State only played four games. The net punt average was 40 yards per attempt, the kickoff return average was 17.25 yards, and the Flashes went 1-2 on onside kick attempts.

Barton's teams unit arguably made the most influential play of the 2019 season to earn them a spot in the Tropical Smoothie Cafe Bowl. Down 27-6 in the fourth quarter against Buffalo with bowl eligibility hanging in the balance, the Flashes needed a comeback. After cutting the lead to 27-20, the defense forced a punt. Jeremiah Salaam made the play of the game and blocked the punt, giving the Flashes the ball at the 4-yard line. Kent State made the biggest comeback of the college football season and kept their bowl hopes alive in large part to the teams play.

The 2019 season saw two players earn all-MAC honors. Matthew Trickett earned the highest honor as the Mid-American Conference Special Teams Player of the Year. He connected on 29 of his 34 field goal attempts, including nailing four game-winning kicks during the season. Trickett also set a career-high with five field goals in the program's first ever bowl win against Utah State. Joining Trickett was punter Derek Adams, who received third team all-MAC honors. The lefty ranked 38th in the country and third in the MAC with 43.10 yards per punt.

Kick returner Jamal Parker also received all-MAC honors at defensive back, but he was a huge contributor to the teams as well. He set the Kent State kick returning record with 797 return yards in 2019. His 27.5 yard average ranks fifth in program history.

In his first season as special teams coordinator he oversaw Trickett's sensational freshman season as he was named to the All-MAC First Team. Trickett made 14-of-17 field goals including a 49-yarder, the longest by a freshman in school history. Barton improved the kickoff return average of more than five yards per return in his first season. Two different Kent State return men had returns of over 40 yards

Prior to working at Kent State, Barton spent the previous six seasons as an assistant coach for Winona State, where he served as co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach. He was also the Warriors' recruiting coordinator.

In 2012, the first season of his second stint at Winona State, Barton helped the Warriors win 10 games and earn an appearance in the Mineral Water Bowl. The following season, Winona State's special teams excelled, finishing second in the nation with six blocked kicks. The Warriors finished second in their conference in both punting and punt returns.

Prior to Winona State, Barton worked with the offensive line at the University of Memphis, helping with all aspects of the offensive game plan.

In 2010, Barton was on staff with Sean Lewis at Nebraska Omaha, serving as defensive line coach.

Barton's first stint with Winona State came in 2007, lasting three seasons coaching the defensive line and special teams. The Warriors captured the NSIC title and earned a spot in the NCAA Division II playoffs during his first season.

A 2006 graduate of Bloomsburg University, Barton earned a degree in history. He was an all-conference and all-region selection as a senior at Bloomsburg and a member of three conference championship teams. Barton was also a CoSIDA Academic All-Region selection and a four-time member of the PSAC All-Academic Team.

In 2009, Barton received his Master of Science degree in sports management from Winona State. He and his wife Holly have a daughter, Mia.
