THIS WEEK'S OPPONENT

U-M in the Big Ten Championship Game

- The Michigan football team will be making its first appearance in the Big Ten Championship Game
- U-M will look to capture its league-leading 43rd Big Ten Championship with a victory over No. 12/No. 15 Iowa
- The Wolverines qualified for the conference championship game as the Big Ten East Division Champion following a 42-27 victory over No. 2 Ohio State
- Michigan finished the conference season with an 8-1 mark and shared the Big Ten East Division title with Ohio State
- U-M won a share of the 2018 Big Ten East Division title with Ohio State but the Buckeyes went to the championship game by virtue of their victory over the Wolverines

Michigan Football in the state of Indiana

- U-M is seeking its 50th win in the state of Indiana when it plays in the 2021 Big Ten Championship Game
- This will be the third time in school history that the Wolverines play a football game in the city of Indianapolis
- The previous two games in Indianapolis, both victories by Michigan, were played in the late 1800s and early 1900s: 18-0 victory against DePauw in 1892 and a 22-0 win against Wabash in 1907
- The Wolverines have compiled a 49-23-1 record against five opponents in the state of Indiana
- U-M has an impressive 37-12 (.755) record against Big Ten foes in the Hoosier state, battling Indiana (20-3) and Purdue (17-9) on their campuses; has also faced long-time rival Notre Dame (9-11-1), DePauw (2-0) and Wabash (1-0) within the state during its 142-year history of intercollegiate football

U-M's Connection with the Hoosier State

- Michigan's roster features one Indiana native in K Cole Hussung from Floyds Knobs (Central)
- Head Coach Jim Harbaugh returns to the city where he played four NFL seasons (1994-97), leading the Indianapolis Colts to a pair of playoff appearances, including the AFC Championship Game in 1996, and earned the nickname "Captain Comeback" for his ability to rally the Colts on many occasions; Harbaugh was inducted into the Colts Ring of Honor in 2005

Iowa Series History

- This will be the 62nd meeting between Michigan and Iowa
- The Wolverines hold a 42-15-4 lead in the all-time series and has claimed victories in 12 of the last 19 games between the two schools
- Michigan has a 24-5-3 record against Iowa at Michigan Stadium, and has a 25-6-3 all-time mark in Ann Arbor
- UM has a 16-8-1 mark in Iowa City, including a 15-8-1 record at Kinnick Stadium
- The Wolverines hold a 12-8 advantage in the last 20 meetings between the two programs but the two programs have split the last 10 meetings between the schools

- The only two neutral site games played between Michigan and Iowa came in the initial contests, with the Hawkeyes winning 28-5 in 1900 (Detroit, Mich.) and the Wolverines claiming 50-0 victory in 1901 (Chicago, Ill.)

Michigan in Big Ten Action

- U-M has an 8-1 record in conference play

SPECIAL TEAMS

A Look at the 2021 Special Team

- Jay Harbaugh is in his second season as the program's Special Teams Coordinator after serving as an assistant the prior five seasons on staff
- U-M returned three starters from its special teams battery: kicker Jake Moody, punter/holder Brad Robbins and long snapper Will Wagner
- The Wolverines broke in new returners this season: KR Blake Corum and PR/KR A.J. Henning
- Jake Moody (Finalist, Lou Groza Award) and Brad Robbins (Semifinalist, Ray Guy Award) were both up for their individual position awards
- Michigan was one of three programs to have their punter and kicker named a semifinalist for the Groza and Guy Awards (Colorado State and Iowa were the others)
- Moody is tied for fifth among kickers nationally in scoring (9.7 avg.) and field goals per game (1.83 avg.)
- 59 of the 89 kickoffs have been touchbacks
- Michigan leads the nation in kick return defense, allowing just 12.08 yards per return
- Jake Moody leads the team in scoring with 116 points on the season; hit 22-24 on field goals and hit all 50 PATs
- Moody hit nine PATs against Northern Michigan, tying for second all-time for the most converted by a kicker in school history for a single game
- Robbins is averaging 45.8 yards on 38 punts, with 18 boots fair caught and 17 downed inside the opposition's 20-yard line
- Michigan has blocked two punts this season: Cornelius Johnson vs. Northwestern and Matt Torey at Maryland
- The Wolverines blocked their only field goal/PAT attempt as Donovan Jeter got his hand on the ball against Western Michigan

Michigan's Special Teams under Harbaugh

- U-M has converted 117-146 field goal attempts (80.1%) and 311-316 point-after-attempts
- The Wolverines have 272 touchbacks on 527 kickoffs
- Michigan has punted the ball three or less times in 35 games, including three contests where the team did not attempt a punt (Hawaii and Maryland in 2016 and Northern Illinois in 2021)
- The Wolverines have downed 125 punts inside the opposition's 20-yard line
- U-M has 17 blocks in the seven seasons that Coach Harbaugh has led the program
- Michigan led the Big Ten and finished second nationally with seven blocked kicks in 2016: one PAT, two FGs and four punts (three other punts were deflected and another punt by the opposition hit into the back of its own player)
- Led the NCAA with four blocked punts in 2016, finished 19th nationally with three blocked punts in 2018 and ranked fifth in the country with two blocked punts in 2019

*NCAA regular-season record

Michigan Stadium -- 1927-2020 (94 Years)

The football program is in its 94th season in the "Big House" in 2020, with a 444-133-15 all-time record at Michigan Stadium. The largest college football stadium in the country, it was completed in 1927 at a cost of $950,000, initially seating 72,000 fans. Michigan won the first game played at Michigan Stadium, defeating Ohio Wesleyan, 33-0, on Oct. 1, 1927. The stadium was officially dedicated on Oct. 22, 1927, with a 21-0 shutout over Ohio State.

Since that inaugural season, the capacity of Michigan Stadium has been altered 10 times to its present capacity of 107,601. The Wolverines have led the nation in attendance 38 times in the past 41 years, and reestablished the NCAA single-game attendance record at 115,109 fans during the 2013 Notre Dame game.

Michigan has drawn crowds of 100,000-plus for 300 consecutive games; the current streak was paused when health officials and government agencies limited fans at sporting events during the 2020 football season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. On football Saturdays in Ann Arbor, Michigan Stadium ranks as the fourth-largest "city" in the state, surpassing the population of Ann Arbor itself.

Michigan Stadium was the first college-owned football facility with a video scoreboard above both end zones and was also the first stadium to use electronic scoreboards for official time when, in 1930, two were installed.

CAPACITY: 107,601 -- the largest college-owned structures of its kind designed solely for football -- closer to the playing field with no running track -- no posts or other obstructions.

COMPLETION: 1927 -- at a cost in excess of $950,000 to seat 72,000 spectators.

Capacity raised to 84,401 by addition of temporary wooden bleachers until 1949 when permanent steel stands replaced the wooden bleachers, increasing the capacity to 97,239. Seating capacity then raised to 101,001 in 1956, 101,701 in 1973, 102,501 in 1992 and 107,501 in 1998.

FIRST GAME: October 1, 1927 -- Michigan led by Captain Bennie Oosterbaan, defeated Ohio Wesleyan, 33-0. LaVerne (Kip) Taylor, Michigan end, scored first in the stadium on a 28-yard pass from halfback Louis Gilbert.

DEDICATION GAME: October 22, 1927 -- Michigan defeated Ohio State, 21-0.

REDEDICATION GAME: September 4, 2010 -- vs. Connecticut.

ATTENDANCE: Since 1927, 52,074,810 fans have watched the Wolverines play at Michigan Stadium. Stadium attendance record of 115,109 was set on Sept. 7, 2013 against Notre Dame.

FIELD: 360 x 160 feet -- Installed new FieldTurf in 2010. The original FieldTurf surface was installed in 2003, returning Michigan to an artificial surface for the first time since the 1990 season. Installed Prescription Athletic Turf in 1991, giving Michigan its first natural grass field since 1968. Field was also lowered 3-1/2 feet allowing better sightlines for those seated in the lower rows.

100,000-Plus Crowds at Michigan Stadium

The football program has played 300 consecutive home games in front of crowds in excess of 100,000; current streak was paused when health officials and government agencies limited fans at sporting events during the 2020 football season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The last time Michigan did not have 100,000 in attendance in Michigan Stadium was on Oct. 25, 1975 vs. Indiana. A crowd of 93,857 was on hand for the 55-7 Michigan victory.

Jim Harbaugh

J. Ira and Nicki Harris Family Head Football Coach

University of Michigan (1986, B.A., Communications)

60-23 Record at Michigan; 42-17 Big Ten Record

Jim Harbaugh has led the University of Michigan football program to three 10-win seasons in his six years in Ann Arbor, becoming one of just four Big Ten coaches to accomplish the feat in the history of the conference.

The J. Ira and Nicki Harris Family Head Football Coach, Harbaugh was named the 20th coach in Michigan football history on Dec. 30, 2014. He became the sixth Michigan football player selected to lead college football's winningest program.

In three of his five seasons as the Michigan head coach, Harbaugh has guided the Wolverines to 10-wins. U-M has appeared in a bowl game in all five seasons, including two New Year's Six Bowls with the 2017 Orange Bowl and 2018 Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl, and three other bowls played on New Year's Day (2016 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl; 2018 Outback Bowl; 2020 Vrbo Citrus Bowl).

Eight Wolverines have secured 12 All-America honors under Harbaugh, including consensus honorees Devin Bush, Jake Butt, Maurice Hurst, Jourdan Lewis and Jabrill Peppers.

Additionally, Butt won the Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end in 2016 while Peppers received the Lott IMPACT Trophy, Paul Hornung Award and was a fifth-place finisher in the Heisman Trophy race that same season. Several other athletes have been national award finalists under Harbaugh, including Lewis (Jim Thorpe Award) and Bush (Butkus Award).

At least 20 players from each team Harbaugh has coached at Michigan have earned All-Big Ten recognition, including 24 players with first-team honors (four in 2015, six in 2016, three in 2017, eight in 2018, and three in 2019). In the classroom, Wolverines have totaled 174 academic All-Big Ten honors during his tenure, including a program-record 48 in 2017.

Harbaugh's teams at Michigan have each finished the season ranked in the national polls, including a No. 10 season-ending ranking in 2016, when the Wolverines came within inches of claiming their first Big Ten East Division Title and a spot in the conference championship game in 2016. U-M has finished the season as a top-15 team three times in Harbaugh's tenure.

Under Harbaugh, Michigan has produced two of the five most-productive offensive seasons in school history. U-M has had a top-12 national defense in all five seasons and a top-three unit on three occasions.

Harbaugh came to Ann Arbor after a four-year run in the NFL with the San Francisco 49ers. He led the franchise to the NFC Championship Game in each of his first three seasons, winning the NFC title in 2012. Harbaugh tallied a 49-22-1 overall record, including 5-3 in the postseason.

Harbaugh led the Niners to a 13-3 regular-season record and the NFC Championship Game in 2011, his first season, earning the AP NFL Coach of the Year award. He followed up with an 11-4-1 regular-season mark in 2012, culminating with an appearance in Super Bowl XLVII. Harbaugh's 49ers lost a back-and-forth affair, 34-31, to the Baltimore Ravens and his brother, John, in the only matchup of brothers as head coaches in NFL history.

At the collegiate level, Harbaugh spent three years at the University of San Diego (2004-06) and four years at Stanford (2007-10). He turned around a Cardinal program that went 1-11 prior to his arrival, culminating with a 12-1 campaign and FedEx Orange Bowl victory in 2010. In his debut as a head coach, Harbaugh led San Diego to a 29-6 record in three seasons.

He spent the 2002 and 2003 NFL seasons as the Oakland Raiders' quarterbacks coach, assisting the team to Super Bowl XXXVII.

Harbaugh began preparing for a coaching career during his professional playing days, spending eight years as an NCAA-certified unpaid assistant coach for his father, Jack, at Western Kentucky (1994-2001).

As an NFL quarterback, Harbaugh played for five organizations in his 15-year career (1987-2001). He threw for 26,288 yards and 129 touchdowns in 177 games and made 140 career starts. He was the AFC Offensive Player of the Year, the NFL Comeback Player of the Year and a Pro Bowl selection after leading the Indianapolis Colts to the AFC Championship Game in 1995. In 2005, he was inducted into the Colts Ring of Honor.

As a Wolverine, Harbaugh was one of the most efficient passers in NCAA history. In 1985, he led the nation in pass efficiency and finished runner-up the following year. His career pass efficiency rating was the NCAA's top mark for more than 12 years.

In 1986, Harbaugh won the "Chicago Tribune" Big Ten Most Valuable Player award, was a first-team All-American and finished third in Heisman Trophy voting.

The first Michigan quarterback to throw for more than 300 yards in a single game (310 vs. Wisconsin), Harbaugh also eclipsed the 200-yard passing mark 12 times. He led the Wolverines to a 21-3-1 record as a full-time starter during his final two seasons, including a pair of victories against Michigan State and Ohio State. During his college career, he completed 387-of-620 passes for 5,449 yards and 31 touchdowns; all four statistical categories still list among the top 12 in school history.

Harbaugh and his wife, Sarah, have two daughters, Addison and Katherine, and two sons, Jack and John. He also has three adult children, Jay, James Jr., and Grace.
