JUSTIN JACKSON: THE RECORD HOLDER

Senior running back Justin Jackson cemented his name in the Northwestern record book as the program's all-time leading rusher with a season-high 171 yards in the Wildcats' 37-31 win at Maryland, bringing his career total to 4,639. Not only did Jackson become the program's all-time leading rusher, but he also set new program records for career all-purpose yards (5,350) and career rushing attempts (963). See below for some of the remarkable numbers Jackson has put up in his career:

- 4,639 Rushing Yards: Moved past Damien Anderson (4,485; Northwestern), Denard Robinson (4,495; Michigan), Darnell Thompson (4,518; Minnesota) and Ameer Abdullah (4,588; Nebraska) into ninth on the Big Ten career rushing list.
- 963 Career Attempts: Holds the Northwestern record and ranks fifth in Big Ten history. Needs just 47 attempts to become only the fifth player in Big Ten history to reach 1,000 career rushing attempts.
- 36 Rushing Touchdowns: Moved past Darnell Autry (35; 1994-96) for second in program history.
- 37 Total Touchdowns: Moved past Jason Wright (35; 2000-03) into a tie with Darnell Autry (37; 1994-96) and Tyrell Sutton (37; 2005-08) for second in program history with 37, just one shy of Damien Anderson's program record of 38.
- 23 Career 100-Yard Games: Jackson surpassed 170 yards rushing for the seventh time in his career in his 23rd-career 100-plus yard game. Northwestern is a perfect 3-0 this season and 19-4 during his career when he hits the century mark.
- 10 Career Multi-Touchdown Games: With two scores at Maryland, Jackson recorded his second multi-touchdown game of the season and 10th of his career. Jackson has scored at least two touchdowns in five of his last 10 games dating back to last season.

KUHBANDER KICKS HIS WAY TO NU HISTORY

First-year kicker Charlie Kuhbander was named the Big Ten's Special Teams Player of the Week Monday morning after becoming the first rookie in program history to make three field goals in a single game. Kuhbander matched his season long with a 40-yard strike in the first quarter and went on to connect from 34 and 32 yards later in the game, finishing with a season-high 13 points. The Springsboro, Ohio, native has made six consecutive field goal attempts and 20 consecutive extra points and is ranked third nationally among qualified first-year kickers with a 85.7 percent field goal percentage.

SAMDUP SACKS

First-year defensive end Samdup Miller recorded his third sack of the season with a six-yard loss in the second quarter at Maryland, becoming the first Wildcat to record a sack in three-straight games since Ifeadi Odenigbo accomplished the feat last season versus Iowa (Oct. 1), Michigan State (Oct. 15) and Indiana (Oct. 22). Miller is also the first rookie Wildcat to record a sack in three straight since Odenigbo did so in 2013 versus Nebraska (Nov. 2), Michigan (Nov. 16) and Michigan State (Nov. 23). The Houston, Texas, native is tied for second in Big Ten play with three solo sacks, the most by a first-year player.

GAME NOTES

PARTY IN THE BACKFIELD

The Wildcats racked up nine tackles for loss in their victory at Maryland and have now recorded 21 tackles for loss over their last two games. The 'Cats' 12 tackles for loss versus Penn State were the most versus a conference opponent since at least 2000 and the 21 tackles for loss over the last two games are the most during the same span. The two-game stretch includes seven sacks (5 vs. Penn State; 2 vs. Maryland) for a loss of 50 yards.

RED ALERT: 'CATS ARE COMIN'

Northwestern went a perfect 5-for-5 in the red zone at Maryland to improve to 22-for-24 on the season. The 'Cats rank second in the Big Ten and 21st nationally, converting at a clip of 91.7 percent. In total, NU has scored 18 touchdowns (11 rushing/7 passing) and converted four field goals inside the 20-yard line.

NATE HALL, Y'ALL

Junior linebacker Nate Hall set a career high for a second-straight week with 11 tackles at Maryland. Hall matched his career-high for the second-straight week with eight solo stops as well and has now recorded double-digit tackles in back-to-back performances for the first time in his career. He also registered a career-high 3.5 tackles for loss versus the Terrapins, marking the most by a Wildcat since Anthony Walker, Jr., had 3.5 versus Illinois on Nov. 18, 2015. Hall leads the Wildcats with 7.5 tackles for loss this season and ranks fourth during Big Ten play with 5.5 tackles for loss through three games. He has made at least five tackles in all six games this season and 12 straight dating back to last year.

MAN IN THE MIDDLE

First-year linebacker Paddy Fisher was forced to sit out the first half of last week's game at Maryland, but still ranks among the nation's rookie leaders in tackles. Fisher leads the Wildcats in tackles (47), solo tackles (28) and assisted tackles (19), ranking first among qualified FBS first-year players with 7.8 tackles per game and second in total tackles behind only Oregon State's David Morris (51). He enters Saturday's game versus Iowa sixth in the Big Ten with 7.8 tackles per contest.

GAME NOTES

THORSON'S TARGETS

Junior quarterback Clayton Thorson completed 27 of 49 passes for 293 yards and touchdown, while adding an 18-yard rushing touchdown in the 'Cats win at Maryland. Thorson recorded his third game with at least 290 yards passing this season after having two such games in his first two seasons (both in 2016). With 27 completions and 293 yards, Thorson moved past Trevor Siemian (5,931 yards/550 completions; 2011-14) for fourth in program history with 6,200 yards passing and 567 career completions. See below for more notes on Thorson:

- Thorson threw his 37th career touchdown pass and now needs just seven touchdown passes to tie the program record of 44 held by Brett Basanez (2002-05) and Len Williams (1990-93).
- His 18-yard rushing touchdown was his third of the season and 13th of his career, moving him within one of Mike Greenfield (14; 1984-87) for fourth in program history in career rushing touchdowns by a quarterback.
- Recorded his 20th career victory as a starting quarterback, moving within two of Brett Basanez's (2002-05) program record of 22.
- Ranks first in the Big Ten and 16th nationally with 22.83 completions per game, third in the Big Ten with 249.3 passing yards per game and fourth in the conference with 1,496 passing yards.

SPREADING THE WEALTH

Thorson matched his season high by completing a pass to nine different receivers at Maryland. Below are notes on the receiving corps stellar performance.

- SB Cam Green: Recorded career highs in receptions (6), receiving yards (49) and long reception (17). Entered the game with nine career receptions for 58 yards.
- WR Macan Wilson: Hauled in a career-high five receptions for 74 yards, just three yards shy of his career high.
- WR Flynn Nagel: Made four catches for 48 yards with his first touchdown of the season and third of career. Has made at least three catches in all six games this season, nine straight dating back to 2016 and 14 times in his career.
- WR Charlie Fessler: Had a career-high two receptions and 38 yards, including a career-long 30-yard catch. Entered the game with just one reception for seven yards (Nebraska, 2015).
- WR Riley Lees: Matched a season-high with three receptions and finished the game with a season-high 120-all purpose yards.

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION

Northwestern exploded for 531 yards of total offense at Maryland (293 passing/238 rushing), marking its third 500-plus yard game of the season. It was the 22nd time since 2000 that the 'Cats have hit the 500-yard mark on offense and the 7th time versus a Big Ten opponent under Dan and Susan Jones Family Head Football Coach Pat Fitzgerald.

GAME NOTES

OFFENSIVE LINE REBOUNDS

After surrendering 12 sacks in back-to-back losses to No. 10 Wisconsin and No. 4 Penn State, the offensive line gave up just one sack and led the way to 531 yards of total offense in a 37-31 win at Maryland. Northwestern has given up just four sacks in its three wins this season, while giving up 16 in three losses.

#HOMEGROWN BACKFIELD LEADS THE WAY

Much of the Wildcats' success this season has fallen on the shoulders of the #HOMEGROWN backfield of senior running back Justin Jackson and junior quarterback Clayton Thorson. The Wildcats are averaging 572.3 yards of offense and 39 points per game in their three wins this season. A breakdown of Thorson and Jackson's production is included in the table.

#HOMEGROWN BACKFIELD: WINS & LOSSES
	WINS	LOSSES
Thorson Passing	78-for-117 (67%), 5 TD/3 INT	59-for-110 (54%), 3 TD, 6 INT
Thorson Yards	1,015 yards (338/game)	481 yards (160/game)
Jackson Rushing	76 carries (25/game), 5 TD	32 carries (11/game), 1 TD
Jackson Yards	401 yards (133.7/game)	109 yards (36.3/game)

THORSON AMONG FINAL 20 FOR JOHNNY UNITAS GOLDEN ARM AWARD

Junior Clayton Thorson was among 20 quarterbacks included on the remaining candidates list for the 2017 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award given annually to the country's top college quarterback. The Golden Arm Award is presented at the end of each season since 1987 to the nation's top college quarterback, based on his accomplishments both on and off the field. Candidates must be a college senior or fourth-year junior on schedule to graduate with their class. These strong leaders have demonstrated a commitment to excellence and worked hard for themselves and their teams during the season and beyond.

OFF THE EDGE

Sophomore defensive end Joe Gaziano recorded a sack in back-to-back games to start Big Ten play. Gaziano enters Saturday's game versus Iowa with 7.5 career sacks, seven of which have come in his first 11 career games versus Big Ten foes. The Scituate, Massachusetts, native is just 4.5 sacks shy of cracking Northwestern's top-10 list all time.

MR. SKY TEAM

Senior safety Godwin Igwebuike was held without a tackle for the first time in his career at Maryland after having to sit out the first half due to a targeting penalty assessed versus Penn State. Despite not having a tackle, Igwebuike still ranks among the nation's elite. See below for notes on the senior captain:

- Has finished with at least seven tackles in 16 of his last 19 games dating back to the start of the 2015 season.
- Ranks sixth among active FBS defensive backs with 187 career solo tackles.
- Igwebuike is tied with junior Montre Hartage for the most interceptions by an active Wildcat with six, just two shy of racking the NU top-10 list all time.
- Needs 47 tackles to move into the top 10 all time at Northwestern.

WEEKLY MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE

Coach Fitzgerald will hold a media briefing at 12:00 p.m. CT each Monday in the Nicolet Football Center. Fitzgerald will make comments and answer questions until approximately 12:30 p.m. Selected players will be on hand to meet with the press at approximately 12:35 p.m., class schedules permitting. The entire news conference is available on NUports.com (All-Access video site for a fee).

BIG TEN WEEKLY TELECONFERENCE

Coach Fitzgerald takes part in the Big Ten Conference's Coaches Teleconference each Tuesday throughout the regular season. All 14 head coaches are available to answer questions for eight minutes. Fitzgerald's segment begins at 11:56 a.m. CT. Media members wishing to participate should call or email the Big Ten office (847-696-1010) for the call-in phone number. Playback of the teleconference is available for 24 hours following the completion of the original format.

COACH/PLAYER AVAILABILITY

Coach Fitzgerald and student-athletes who did not participate in the Monday press conference are available after morning practice on Tuesday of the Wisconsin week. No player interviews will be granted on Sunday, Wednesday, Thursday or Friday. Depending on his schedule, Coach Fitzgerald may also be available during the late-afternoon hours on Tuesday and Wednesday. Please call in advance to set up an interview.

WILDCATS ONLINE

The official web site of Northwestern Athletics is NUports.com. Updated daily, the site includes releases and game notes as well as other football-related items: up-to-date roster, schedule, game times, etc. You may also follow Northwestern football on Twitter at these accounts: @NU_Sports, @NU_SportsLIVE, @NUFBFamily or @coachfitz51.

Already the second-longest tenured Big Ten head coach at the age of 42, Pat Fitzgerald's 11 seasons at the helm of Northwestern have been spent building upon the tradition he helped establish as a Hall-of-Fame linebacker for the Wildcats in the mid-1990's. Characterized by his motivational skills, enthusiasm and passion for all things Northwestern, Fitzgerald has shaped Chicago's Big Ten Team into one that consistently achieves excellence in all three phases of the student-athlete experience: academics, athletics and community outreach.

Taking over as head coach in 2006 after the sudden passing of his friend and mentor, Randy Walker, Fitzgerald provided leadership and stability in a trying time and has continued Walker's legacy of producing winning football teams while preparing young men for long-term success in life.

Fitzgerald has led the Wildcats to seven bowl appearances in his 11 seasons and has guided the 'Cats to two of their three bowl wins in program history. Most recently, Chicago's Big Ten Team defeated No. 23 Pittsburgh in the 2016 New Era Pinstripe Bowl in Yankee Stadium, 31-24. After a slow 1-3 start to the season, the Wildcats won six of their last nine games to finish the 2016 season with a winning record of 7-6 for the sixth time under Fitzgerald.

The fifth-year seniors of the 2016 class became the first group in program history to earn a pair of bowl victories with their wins in the Pinstripe Bowl and TaxSlayer Bowl in 2013.

Away from the gridiron, Fitzgerald's players have achieved at the highest levels in the classroom, last fall placing a record 39 players on the Academic All-Big Ten team en route to posting a program-record 3.14 GPA for the 2016-17 academic year. In 2012, Northwestern collected top national honors in the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for the seventh time since 1998. Additionally, Fitzgerald's program ranked second among all FBS programs in the recently released multi-year Academic Progress Rating (APR), posting a score of 992 out of a possible 1,000 in the measure of player retention and eligibility.

Beginning in January 2018, Fitzgerald will begin a three-year term as a member of the National Football Foundation's Board of Directors.

As a player in 1995, Fitzgerald was the leader of a suffocating Wildcats defensive unit that led the nation in scoring defense and anchored NU's storybook run to the Big Ten championship and Rose Bowl. He capped the year by winning both the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards as the nation's top defensive player and also was the Big Ten, Chevrolet and Sports Illustrated Defensive Player of the Year. Fitzgerald accomplished all of this despite suffering a broken leg in the penultimate regular-season game.

Fitzgerald recovered from that injury and in 1996 he again led the Wildcats to a share of the Big Ten title. He repeated as recipient of the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards, becoming the first two-time winner of both honors and laying the groundwork for his selection in 2008 to the College Football Hall of Fame. A two-time first-team All-American, Fitzgerald started 23 career games and totaled 299 tackles, including 20 for loss. He also forced five fumbles and intercepted three passes.

A graduate of Orland Park's (Ill.) Carl Sandburg High School and a 2003 inductee to the Northwestern Athletics Hall of Fame, Fitzgerald resides in Northfield with his wife, Stacy, and three sons, Jack, born in November 2004, Ryan, born in September 2006, and Brendan, born in February 2009.

GAME 1: NORTHWESTERN 31, NEVADA 20 (SEPT. 2, 2017)

EVANSTON, III. — Redshirt junior quarterback Clayton Thorson passed for two touchdowns then ran for two more in the fourth quarter as Northwestern rode a strong second-half performance to a season-opening 31-20 win over Nevada Saturday afternoon at Ryan Field.

Thorson completed 28 of 38 passes for 352 yards and Bennett Skowronek posted career bests of eight receptions and 123 receiving yards. Thorson's completion and passing yardage totals both matched career highs. Senior Justin Jackson contributed 109 rushing yards and 42 rushing yards.

The Wildcats got on the scoreboard first as Thorson found Macan Wilson streaking down the middle of the field for a leaping 33-yard touchdown reception with 7:13 remaining in the first quarter to put NU up 7-0.

However, Nevada answered right back on the next drive, going 75 yards in eight plays capped by an 11-yard pass from Ty Gangi to Wyatt Demps.

Missed opportunities in the red zone and big plays by the Wolf Pack hurt the 'Cats the remainder of the half.

Northwestern failed to connect on a 22-yard field goal attempt and had a fumble at the Nevada 10-yard line that prevented the Wildcats from further denting the scoreboard in the opening half.

Meanwhile, Nevada took advantage of big plays, getting a 41-yard touchdown pass from Gangi to McLane Mannix before Spencer Pettit tacked on a 31-yard field goal with 36 seconds left in the second quarter as the visitors eventually took a 17-7 halftime lead.

Northwestern came out of the intermission and scored on its first possession of the second half as freshman Charlie Kuhbander connected on a 23-yard field goal to bring the 'Cats within a touchdown.

The Wildcats tied the game when Thorson hooked up with redshirt freshman Riley Lees on a 19-yard scoring strike with 6:16 remaining in the third quarter.

Nevada regained the lead, 20-17, when Pettit hit on a 33-yard field goal with 10:13 remaining. NU answered back by marching 75 yards in 11 plays, capped by a scoring rush by Thorson on 4th and 1 to give the hosts a 24-20 lead with 5:28 left.

A solid kick return allowed the Wolf Pack to start its ensuing drive at its own 39. However, the interior of the Northwestern line led by Tyler Lancaster stuffed Gangi on a rush on 4th and 1 and the Wildcats took over with 3:29 remaining.

The 'Cats sealed the game when Thorson hooked up on a 41-yard completion on 3rd and 7 that got the ball down to the Nevada 3. Three rushes late by Thorson, the quarterback punched the ball in from a yard out to wrap up the scoring with 52 seconds to go.

GAME 2: DUKE 41, NORTHWESTERN 17 (SEPT. 9, 2017)

DURHAM, N.C. — Northwestern traveled to Wallace Wade Stadium in search of its second win to kick off the 2017 season, but the Wildcats' high-powered offense had trouble replicating its 508 yard performance from last week en route to a 41-17 loss to Duke.

Paddy Fisher led the defense with 18 total tackles and a fumble recovery, while Montre Hartage added 11 tackles and an interception. On the other side of the ball, Justin Jackson found the end zone for his 31st career rushing touchdown, moving him into a tie with Tyrell Sutton for fourth in program history.

The loss moves Northwestern to 1-1 on the season, while Duke remains perfect at 2-0.

The Wildcats got on the board first as first-year Charlie Kuhbander connected on a 40-yard field goal, capping off a 10-play drive to put NU up 3-0.

Duke's Daniel Jones had the nation's longest streak for pass attempts without an interception (202 attempts), but on the ensuing drive Hartage snapped that streak as he came down with his first interception of the season.

However, Jones and the Blue Devils answered back late in the first quarter with an 11-yard touchdown run to give Duke a 7-3 lead.

A 52-yard touchdown pass from Jones to Chris Taylor early in the second quarter helped add to the Duke lead. Then on the Blue Devils' next drive, Jones found the end zone from four yards out for his second rushing touchdown of the day to extend the Duke lead to 21-3.

Late in the first half, the Wildcats' defense forced its second turnover of the game when Kyle Queiro laid a big hit on Duke's Brittain Brown to force a fumble, which was recovered by Fisher to give the Wildcats the ball back on their own 46-yard line.

With just 1:35 remaining in the half, the 'Cats wasted no time moving down the field and into the endzone, going 54 yards in just five plays. Clayton Thorson completed three of four passes for 34 yards during the drive, but it was Jackson who found the end zone for a 5-yard touchdown to cut the deficit to 21-10 heading into halftime.

An interception gave the Blue Devils the ball on the 32-yard line early in the third quarter. But after driving into Northwestern territory, the Wildcats' defense held tough in the red zone and forced Duke to a field goal to extend the lead to 24-10.

Duke would add a touchdown and a field goal early in the fourth quarter.

With 2:50 remaining in the game, Matt Alviti connected with Riley Lees for a 20-yard touchdown, the first of Alviti's career.

GAME 3: NORTHWESTERN 49, BOWLING GREEN 7 (SEPT. 16, 2017)

EVANSTON, ILL. — Northwestern's offense exploded for a season-high 678 total yards as the Wildcats wrapped up their nonconference schedule with an emphatic 49-7 win over Bowling Green under the lights at Ryan Field on Saturday night.

The Wildcats were firing on all cylinders on both sides of the ball on Saturday. Led by captains Clayton Thorson and Justin Jackson, Northwestern's offense finished with 375 passing yards and 303 rushing yards on the day, scoring on five consecutive drives to finish the first half. The defense was led by Paddy Fisher and Godwin Igwebuike, holding Bowling Green to a lone touchdown on the day, the fewest points Northwestern has allowed in a game since 2015.

After two early defensive stops, Northwestern's offense struck first thanks to a 5-yard rushing touchdown by Justin Jackson to cap off a seven-play, 50 yard scoring drive. The touchdown marked the 32nd of Jackson's career, passing Tyrell Sutton for fourth all-time in Northwestern history.

Bowling Green answered with a touchdown of its own to tie the score, 7-7, but the Wildcats retaliated moments later as Thorson connected with sophomore Bennett Skowronek for a 58-yard touchdown to put the 'Cats back up 14-7. The reception marked Northwestern's longest passing play of the season as well as Skowronek's first career touchdown, and it started a run of 42 unanswered points for NU to close the game.

The Wildcats' defense came up with a big turnover to start the second quarter when junior Montre Hartage stripped the ball loose from Dadrin Guyton to force a fumble. Senior Godwin Igwebuike recovered the fumble on the Northwestern 37-yard line and returned it 45 yards into Falcon territory to put the Wildcats in excellent scoring position. Thorson wasted no time capitalizing on the good field position as he found Skowronek on the very next play for the duo's second touchdown connection of the game, this time off an 18-yard score to put the Wildcats up 21-7.

Northwestern added to its lead minutes later after the defense forced another quick three-and-out. This time, the #B1GCats mounted a five play, 75-yard drive and finished with a two-yard rushing touchdown by Jackson, moving him past Jason Wright for 3rd all-time in program history with 33 career rushing touchdowns.

The Wildcats' high-powered offense continued to roll on the following possession, this time driving 90 yards in 13 plays en route to a 14-yard rushing touchdown by redshirt first-year Jeremy Larkin, the first of his career. The score extended Northwestern's lead to 35-7, which it carried into halftime.

Northwestern got back on the board early in the fourth quarter thanks to a 2-yard run by Jackson to make the score 42-7. The touchdown was set up by a 28-yard pass from Thorson to senior Garrett Dickerson.

The ensuing drive, Matt Alviti took over under center and started the drive off with a 68-yard rush, the longest play from scrimmage this season for the 'Cats. Two plays later, redshirt first-year Jesse Brown found the endzone on an 8-yard rushing touchdown, the first of his career, to make the score 49-7.

Thorson finished the day with a career high 209.2 QB rating, completing 23 of 30 passes for a career high 370 passing yards and 2 touchdowns. His top target was Dickerson who caught 9 passes for 150 yards, both of which are career highs. Jackson finished with 121 yards on 18 carries and three rushing touchdowns, tying a career high. Northwestern also finished the day averaging 9.2 average yards per play, breaking the school record by nearly a full yard.

GAME 4: #10 WISCONSIN 33, NORTHWESTERN 24 (SEPT. 30, 2017)

MADISON, Wis. – Northwestern battled No. 10 Wisconsin to the very end, scoring 14 late fourth quarter points, but came up just short on the road in the Big Ten opener at Camp Randall Stadium, 33-24.

Senior Justin Jackson continued his climb up the Big Ten record books as he passed Javon Ringer to move into 13th all-time in on the conference's career rushing yards list.

Jackson now sits at 4,402 career rushing yards and needs just 83 yards to pass Damien Anderson as the program's all-time leader in career rushing yards.

Clayton Thorson finished the day completing 29-of-45 passes for 219 yards and three touchdowns. On the other side of the ball, senior Brett Walsh finished with a team-high 11 tackles.

The loss moves Northwestern to 2-2 (0-1) on the season, while Wisconsin remains unbeaten at 4-0 (1-0).

On the game's first play from scrimmage, sophomore Trae Williams forced a fumble and recovered on Wisconsin's 24-yard line. Minutes later, the 'Cats got on the board first after first-year kicker Charlie Kuhbander converted on a 34-yard field goal to give Northwestern an early 3-0 lead.

The Badgers answered back late in the first quarter with a seven-yard touchdown run by Jonathan Taylor to give Wisconsin a 7-3 lead.

Both teams exchanged stops on the next several drives. The Wildcats' defense saw two first-year players step up to make big plays early in the second quarter as Samdup Miller recorded his first career sack. Then, two plays later, JR Pace came up with his first career interception, forcing the second turnover of the game for the NU defense.

After forcing a three-and-out, the 'Cats were given great field position with 9:16 remaining in the second quarter. Led by Thorson, the Wildcats' offense engineered a 12-play drive that ended with a 1-yard touchdown reception by sophomore superback Cameron Green, the first of his career, to give Northwestern a 10-7 lead.

The Wildcats continued their stellar play on the defensive side of the ball late in the first half when senior Godwin Igwebuike came down with his first interception of the season and the sixth of his career. The defense finished the half with four tackles for loss, three forced fumbles, two sacks and two interceptions. As a result, Northwestern headed to the locker room with a 10-7 halftime lead.

On the Badgers' first drive of the second half, Taylor found the end zone from 11 yards out for his second rushing touchdown of the day to give the Wisconsin a 14-10 lead. Wisconsin would add to its the lead on its next drive after quarterback Alex Hornibrook connected with Danny Davis for a 5-yard touchdown to extend the lead to 21-10.

Wisconsin would add a field goal and a touchdown early in the fourth quarter.

With 4:46 remaining in the game, Thorson found redshirt first-year Ramaud Chiaokhiao-Bowman for a 2-yard touchdown, the first of his career, to cut the deficit to 31-17.

The Wildcat's comeback efforts continued on their next drive as they moved 55 yards in just 1:28, capping the drive with a five-yard connection to Garrett Dickerson to make the score 31-24.

The Northwestern defense forced a stop on the ensuing drive to give the offense the ball back with 1:09 remaining in the game. However, Wisconsin came up with a safety to ice the game, 33-24.

GAME 5: #4 PENN STATE 31, NORTHWESTERN 7 (OCT. 7, 2017)

EVANSTON, Ill. -- A strong defensive effort in the first half wasn't able to carry over into the second half as Northwestern dropped a 31-7 decision to No. 4 Penn State at Ryan Field on Saturday.

Junior Clayton Thorson continued his climb up the NU record books as he passed Mike Greenfield and Zak Kustok in the first half for all-time career passing yards, moving into sole possession of fifth place.

Thorson now sits at 5,907 career passing yards and needs just 25 yards to pass Trevor Siemian, the honorary captain for the Wildcats today, as No. 4 in program history.

Senior Justin Jackson continued to close on the program's all-time rushing record as he finished the day with 66 rushing yards on 16 carries. Jackson now sits at 4,468 career rushing yards and needs just 18 yards to pass Damien Anderson as the program's all-time leader in career rushing yards.

The #B1GCats' defense came to play to start the game, forcing a turnover on downs on Penn State's first possession followed by a three-and-out the next time they got the ball.

After the Nittany Lions drove deep into Wildcat territory on their third possession of the game, the 'Cats' defense held tough and held Penn State to a field goal to make the score 3-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Penn State entered this matchup having dominated its opponents in the first quarter, however that wasn't the case on Saturday as Northwestern's defense held Penn State's elite rushing attack to just two yards on nine carries through one quarter. The Wildcats also became just the second team this season to hold the Nittany Lions without a touchdown in the first quarter this season.

Early in the second quarter, Penn State did find the end-zone as a result of a 1-yard connection from Trace McSorley to Tommy Stevens, extending the Nittany Lions' lead to 10-0.

TheWildcats' offense moved the ball well in the first half, outgaining the Nittany Lions with 166 total yards in the first half compared to their 146. However, the 'Cats was unable to get any points out of their efforts. Northwestern's defense held strong for the remainder of the half to keep the score at 10-0. NU also continued to stifle Penn State's Heisman-hopeful running back Saquon Barkley, holding him to to minus-1 yards on eight carries in the first half.

On Penn State's first drive of the second half, Barkley found the end zone from 1 yard out for his first rushing touchdown of the day. Barkley would later score again on 53-yard run to extend the Nittany Lions' lead to 24-0.

Penn State would add to its lead with a touchdown early in the fourth quarter

With 1:46 remaining in the fourth quarter, senior Matt Alviti found the end-zone on a 1-yard run, the second of his career, to make the score 31-7.

Northwestern's defense finished with a season-high 12 tackles-for-loss on the game, eclipsing the previous high of nine set against Duke and Bowling Green. The performance is tied for the third-most TFLs in a game since 2000.

Senior Godwin Igwebuike led the defense with 11 total tackles, while junior Nate Hall finished with a career high nine tackles, two tackles-for-loss and a sack.

GAME 6: NORTHWESTERN 37, MARYLAND 21 (OCT. 14, 2017)

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Senior running back Justin Jackson ran his way to the top of the career rushing list at Northwestern, and Wildcats surged back into the win column with a 37-21 victory over the Terrapins Saturday at Maryland Stadium.

Jackson, known to the Northwestern faithful as "The Ballcarrier," became the school's all-time leading rusher on a three-yard carry in the first quarter. The senior passed Damien Anderson (1998-2001; 4,485) to cement his name atop the Northwestern record book.

Jackson's 171 yards on Saturday were a career high and the most for the senior since he rushed for 224 in last year's Pinstripe Bowl win over Pittsburgh. He averaged 6.1 yards per carry against the Terrapins on 28 attempts and found the endzone twice.

Northwestern's 37-21 win came in the first-ever meeting between the 'Cats and Maryland and moved the Wildcats to 3-3 (1-2) on the season.

Senior quarterback Clayton Thorson needed just 26 yards to pass Trevor Siemian (2011-14; 5,931) for fourth in program history in career passing yards and wasted no time doing that as he connected with senior Macan Wilson for a 32-yard completion on the Wildcats' first drive.

Maryland started off the scoring Saturday when its quarterback, Max Bortenschlager, found D.J. Moore for a 12-yard touchdown to put the Terrapins up 7-0.

Northwestern's offense cut into the Maryland lead late in the first quarter after driving 68 yards in 16 plays, ultimately capping the drive off with a 40-yard field goal from first year Charlie Kuhbander. The field goal tied a career long for Kuhbander. The first year drilled three field goals on the day.

First-year defensive end Samdup Miller continued his strong play in the Big Ten, recording a sack for the third consecutive game.

Facing a third-and-19 on the ensuing drive, the Wildcats' offense marched 80 yards on six plays, ultimately capping the drive with a five-yard touchdown run from Jackson to put the team up, 10-7.

Maryland took back the lead on the game's next drive when Bortenschlager and Moore connected for their second touchdown of the game.

Northwestern's high-powered offense continued to move the ball effectively on the next drive. The Wildcats moved 75 yards in 13 plays before capping the drive off with an 18-yard touchdown run from Thorson, his third rushing touchdown of the season, to make the score 17-14 in favor of the 'Cats.

Late in the first half, NU scored on its fourth consecutive drive as Thorson connected with junior Flynn Nagel for a 14-yard touchdown, his first touchdown reception this season, to extend the lead to 24-14 heading into halftime.

Thorson was dominant for the 'Cats in the first 30 minutes, finishing with 235 total yards and two touchdowns. The Wildcats racked up 327 yards of offense in the first half, while holding Maryland to 144. Terrapins' running back Ty Johnson had minus-1 yards on three carries, making it the second week in a row that Northwestern held the opponent's starting running back to negative yardage in the first half.

Northwestern kept its foot on the pedal to start the second half as Kuhbander connected on his second field goal of the game from 34 yards out to extend the lead to 27-14.

Bortenschlager followed by throwing his third touchdown pass of the game for Maryland, bringing the Terrapins within a score late in the third quarter. Another Kuhbander field goal, this one from 32 yards, put the 'Cats up 30-21 with 13 minutes left in the contest.

The Wildcats put the game on ice with Jackson's second rushing touchdown of the day from 21 yards out, going up 37-21 with 1:54 to go. That touchdown put Jackson ahead of Darnell Autry (1994-96) on the program's career rushing touchdowns list with 36. The all-time leader is Anderson with 38.
