

THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

Athletic Communications

Iowa 22, Rutgers 0
Opposing Head Coach Quotes
Kinnick Stadium | Nov. 11, 2023

Greg Schiano
Rutgers Head Coach

Opening Statement:

“Well, Iowa is exactly what I thought they are. They sure played well today, and we need to play better and coach better to have a chance to win against a team like that. Very disappointed, but not discouraged. This team will come back. They have every time this year.”

On what caused the penalties:

“The crowd noise. Without a doubt. We practiced with crowd noise that I thought would be as loud as every bit of that. Good players against you can make you twitchy. It can’t happen again. I have a funny feeling it will be loud in Beaver Stadium next week,”

On Iowa Head Coach Kirk Ferentz:

“Coach Ferentz does a really tremendous job. They are a developmental program just like we are. He has been doing it 25 years, same place.”

On college football in the month of November:

“Everybody is limited at this time of the year. They had guys playing that were bumped up. It’s a matter of, ‘are you able to go?’ In November, it’s harder. That’s just the way it is. These guys have been 16-1 in the month of November. It’s tough, they do a really good job.”

Assistant Athletics Director, Communications: Matthew Weitzel Associate Director: James Allan
Assistant Directors, Communications: Hannah Ossman, Sam Basler, Leandra Jew, Traci Wagner
S300 Carver-Hawkeye Arena, Iowa City, IA 52242-1020 P: 319.335.9411