2017 Wyoming Team Notes University of Wyoming Football

Josh Allen and Andrew Wingard Named to Multiple Preseason Watch Lists, Named MW Preseason Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year:

Wyoming juniors Josh Allen and Andrew Wingard have been named to multiple preseason watch lists entering the 2017 season. Here is the list of preseason lists that include Wingard and Allen.

Josh Allen, Jr., QB, Firebaugh, Calif.

- Maxwell Award Watch List
- Davey O'Brien Award Watch List
- Walter Camp Award Watch List
- Manning Award Watch List
- Mountain West Preseason Offensive Player of the Year

Andrew Wingard

Andrew Wingard, Jr., SS, Arvada, Colo.

- Chuck Bednarik Award Watch List
- Bronko Nagurski Trophy Watch List
- Jim Thorpe Award Watch List
- Mountain West Preseason Defensive Player of the Year

Logan Wilson Joins Allen and Wingard on Preseason All-MW Team, Only

Sophomore Selected: In addition to Cowboy juniors Josh Allen and Andrew Wingard being selected the Mountain West Preseason Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year, respectively, in voting by conference media members, Cowboy linebacker Logan Wilson was voted to the Preseason All-MW team. Wilson was the only sophomore in the league to be selected.

Wyoming Coming Off One of Its Most Successful Seasons in Recent History in 2016:

The Wyoming Cowboys are coming off one of their most successful seasons in recent history.

- UW captured the Mountain West Conference Mountain Division title
- Earned the right to host the 2016 Mountain West Championship Game as the highest rated team in the conference
- Earned a berth in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.
- The Cowboys accomplished all that against the 19th most difficult schedule in the country and the second most difficult schedule among all Group of Five schools.

Cowboys Have Big Non-Conference Opportunities/Challenges Early in 2017

Season: The 2017 season will offer the Cowboys two key opportunities against Power Five conference opponents -- the University of Iowa in the season opener, Sept. 2 in Iowa City, and versus the Oregon Ducks in Week 3 in a game that will be played in Laramie.

For a man who has been part of five national championship teams during his coaching career -- two as an assistant coach at his alma mater Nebraska and three as the head coach at North Dakota State -- Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl knows the challenges of keeping a team focused when coming off a successful season.

"It will be important to make sure our football team recognizes we have a long ways to go," said Bohl. "Consistency is going to be really important. The days of us sneaking up on some opponents are long gone. There is an awful lot of parity in the Mountain West. We'll need to have a great fall camp and get off to great start in our non-conference schedule."

In terms of facing Iowa and Oregon in the first three weeks of the season Bohl sees it as both a challenge and an opportunity.

"It's always great to open up with a nationally-recognized opponent like the University of Iowa," said Bohl. "Coach (Kirk) Ferentz and the Iowa Hawkeyes have been an outstanding program for a long, long time. To go to Iowa City will be a combination of a big challenge and a great opportunity for us."

"Having Oregon at our place should create a fantastic atmosphere in War Memorial Stadium, and will be a great game for our fans."

"But it's going to be more important for the growth of our program that we develop as a football team throughout the entire year. Facing the quality of opponents we will early in the season, we're going to learn more about some of our unproven guys. We've been encouraged by what we've seen, but with that said we have some question marks."

Prior to 2016, the last time Wyoming defeated two Top 25 teams in the same season was in 1999 when the Pokes defeated No. 24 Air Force (10-7) and No. 15 BYU (31-17).

Only 2016 senior nose tackle Chase Appleby, who had a memorable season a year ago is gone.

Granderson was having an outstanding season before suffering a season-ending injury in Week 6 vs. Air Force. Prosser led all Cowboy defensive linemen in tackles (36) and solo tackles (22) and lead all UW defenders in sacks (6.5) and tackles for loss (11.0) in 2016.

Andrew Wingard Named One of Only 16 Semifinalists for 2016 Jim Thorpe Award:

The Jim Thorpe Award has been presented annually since 1986 to college football's best defensive back by the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame. It was established to honor history's greatest all-around athlete, the legendary Jim Thorpe who was an outstanding football player, professional baseball player and won Olympic gold medals in the decathlon and pentathlon.

Wingard is coming off a sophomore season in 2016 that also saw him earn First Team All-Mountain West Conference honors. In 2015 as a true freshman, Wingard received First Team Freshman All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

The FWAA selected Wingard as one of only 29 freshmen in the nation to be named to the 2015 FWAA Freshman All-America Team.

Allen won the balloting for the award for his performance against Utah State in a 52-28 Wyoming win. He was also one of the eight candidates for his performance in a 30-28 win over No. 13 ranked Boise State.

Cowboys Celebrate Win Over Boise State

FWAA Selected Wyoming Cowboys National Team of the Week for Win Over Boise State in 2016:

Quarterback Josh Allen led a fourth-quarter touchdown drive, including a two-point conversion to tie the game, and the Wyoming Cowboys forced a safety with 1:25 left for the winning points in a 30-28 win over previously-unbeaten and No. 13 ranked Boise State on Oct. 29, 2016. For beating the Broncos, the Cowboys earned the Football Writers Association of America National Team of the Week honor for games of the weekend of Oct. 29.

Allen hit Tanner Gentry in the back of the end zone with 6:42 left, then dodged the Boise State rush and hit Jake Maulhardt for a two-point conversion for a 28-28 tie. Minutes later, punter Ethan Wood pinned Boise State at its own 10-yard line, his fourth punt inside the Broncos' 20-yard line, that set up the decisive series. On second down, nose tackle Chase Appleby came free on a defensive line stunt and hit Boise State quarterback Brett Rypien, knocking the ball loose. The ball bounced out of the back of the end zone for a safety, and Wyoming took its first lead of the day.

"If a win could help define a program this one did," said Bohl. "We have a lot of respect for Boise State and Coach (Bryan) Harsin. I want to say thanks to our fans and students. A couple of years ago, I had someone take a photo of the crowd and it was bleak, but tonight it was neat to see the students and people around the state rally around the team. A lot of great plays and effort, and coming in we knew it was going to be down to a play here or there. It shows resolve and belief with our coaches and players. A lot of hard work went in to this win and it's victory number six."

This is Wyoming's first time to be selected as the FWAA National Team of the Week since the award's inception in the 2002 season. The other National Team of the Week nominees for the weekend of Oct. 29 were Clemson, who defeated Florida State, and Texas, who defeated Baylor.

Members of the 12-person FWAA All-America Committee – plus one fan vote from Twitter – decide the weekly honor.

Wyoming Football's All-Time Record:

The Wyoming Cowboy Football program has played a total of 1,110 games in its history. Wyoming is 42 games under .500 all-time (520 wins to 562 losses), and has played 49 more road games than home games in its history (522 home games to 571 road games). Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center Will Benefit All UW Student-Athletes:

The University of Wyoming broke ground Saturday, Oct. 29 on the Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center (HAPC). The HAPC will be one of the preeminent athletic facilities in the country. It will add 71,000 square feet of new space and will expand the current Curtis and Marian Rochelle Athletics

Center to over 118,000 square feet.

The HAPC groundbreaking was held on the same day the Wyoming Cowboys hosted the Boise State Broncos in a battle for first place in the Mountain West Conference's Mountain Division.

"A successful athletics program generates excitement," Wyoming Gov. Matt Mead said in April, when fundraising was announced. "This leads to better student recruitment, better alumni support and stronger schools. I recommended $20 million in matching funds for the expansion and renovation of the Rochelle Athletics Center for these reasons. I thank Marian H. Rochelle for this generous gift and her continued support of the University of Wyoming."

The project is funded by $24 million in private donations that were raised by UW Athletics and the UW Foundation and $20 million in state matching approved by Gov. Mead and the Legislature. Overwhelming interest by donors—55 total—saw the fundraising efforts completed ahead of schedule. Marian Rochelle and her family donated $3 million as a leadership gift to kick off the project, and the combined gifts of Marian Rochelle and her daughter April Brimmer Kunz have since grown to $4.1 million.

"Mick and Susie McMurry's generosity and their commitment to making the University of Wyoming a premier university in both athletics and academics will be symbolized by the High Altitude Performance Center that will bear their name," says Tom Burman, UW athletics director. "We also want to thank Marian Rochelle and April Brimmer Kunz for their generous lead gift for this project. And we of course want to thank Governor Mead and the members of the Wyoming State Legislature for making funds available to match the private funds that we raised for this facility."

"The High Altitude Performance Center will be one of the best facilities of its kind in all of college athletics. It will provide the student-athletes in all of our sports the athletic training resources to compete with the best in the nation, and it will provide our academic counseling unit exceptional resources to help our student-athletes achieve their educational and career goals."

"The Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center will redefine Cowboy football," says UW Head Football Coach Craig Bohl. "This facility will play a critical role in our vision of recruiting to what we call the Wyoming Profile. That recruiting effort involves attracting a young man who is committed to earning a meaningful degree from an outstanding academic institution and has a laser-like focus to win Mountain West Conference championships. The High Altitude Performance Center will put us at the top of the league in terms of training and academic facilities, which is where we also aspire to be on the field of competition."

The new facility will focus on the unique advantages of training at an altitude of 7,220 feet. From strength and conditioning training, to nutrition, to recovery and rehabilitation services following injuries, the HAPC will serve the needs of all of Wyoming's 400-plus student-athletes.

The facility's design will stay true to the architectural tradition of iconic sandstone buildings featured throughout the UW campus.

Located just beyond the north end zone, the High Altitude Performance Center will enhance the aesthetics of War Memorial Stadium. Due to its location, the HAPC will be highly visible for national television audiences. It will show the commitment that the state of Wyoming has in ensuring Wyoming Athletics continues to successfully compete at the NCAA Division I level -- the highest level of competition in college sports.

The ground level of the HAPC will house both an Olympic sport weight-training area and a separate strength and conditioning center for the Cowboy football team that will overlook Jonah Field. Also on the first floor will be a sports medicine area that will nearly double the size of its previous space, allowing for more effective and efficient treatment of UW student-athletes. The football locker room, like the football strength and conditioning area, will overlook the field and will include a player lounge.

The second floor will include an expansive academic center to house academic counselors, tutoring areas and a computer lab, as well as enhanced and renovated football offices, meeting rooms, a new recruiting lounge and the nutrition center/training table. The theater-style team meeting room will span both the first and second floors.

Construction on the project will begin after the conclusion of the 2016 Cowboy football season. It is estimated that the project will take 18-20 months to complete.

The original Curtis and Marian Rochelle Athletics Center was opened in 2001 at a total cost of $9.4 million. Fundraising for the RAC included a historic $4.2 million gift from the Rochelles, which was the largest donation in school history at the time. A total of 167 donors contributed to the original RAC.

When Craig Bohl was hired as head football coach for the University of Wyoming, he was open in saying that he wanted to bring Cowboy Football back to a place of national prominence. In 2016, his team took the first step toward that goal, defeating two Top 25 ranked opponents, being named the National Team of the Week by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) for one of those wins and receiving votes itself in the national polls. Wyoming also captured the Mountain Division title of the Mountain West Conference, earned the right to host the 2016 MW Football Championship Game as the highest ranked team in the conference and was invited to the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.

His Cowboys ended the year as one of the NCAA's top scoring offenses, averaging 35.9 points per game to rank No. 25 in the nation. Bohl was recognized for his turnaround of Cowboy Football by being named the Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year in voting by conference head coaches and media.

Now entering his fourth season at Wyoming and his 15th season as a head coach, Bohl is challenging his team to take another step forward in 2017 -- a step to become a team that consistently competes for and wins conference titles and reaches postseason play.

"Taking another step forward as a football program has been our focus since the start of winter conditioning," said Bohl. "Last year, we were competitive within our conference, but we need to continue to take steps to improve.

"I think our guys have gotten a taste of what it's like to be competitive, and now we need to build on that."

In 2016, two Cowboys earned All-America honors in running back Brian Hill and center Chase Roullier. Linebacker Logan Wilson earned Freshman All-America honors in 2016, joining Andrew Wingard, who earned

Freshman All-America honors a year earlier.

For a man who has been part of five national championship teams during his coaching career -- two as an assistant coach at his alma mater Nebraska and three as the head coach at North Dakota State -- Bohl knows how to keep a team focused when coming off a successful season.

"It will be important to make sure our football team recognizes we have a long ways to go," said Bohl. "Consistency is going to be really important. The days of us sneaking up on some opponents are long gone. There is an awful lot of parity in the Mountain West. We'll need to have a great fall camp and get off to great start in our non-conference schedule."

Athletics Director Tom Burman introduced Bohl as the new head football coach of the Wyoming Cowboys on Sunday, Dec. 8, 2013. Bohl became the 32nd head football coach in University of Wyoming history.

He came to Wyoming after building a national power at North Dakota State as a head coach for 11 seasons from 2003-13. His teams won three consecutive National Championships at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level in 2011, '12 and '13. NDSU became only the second FCS school in NCAA history to win three consecutive national football titles, tied the FCS record for consecutive wins (24 from 2011-13) and became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since 1996.

"Rarely do you get an opportunity to hire a head coach who has won multiple National Championships and has a reputation as a program builder," said Burman.

"I am absolutely confident we hired one of the best football coaches in the country. All you have to do is look at Craig's record."

"I understand the awesome responsibility to lead this football team," said Bohl. "I also understand how important football is in the fabric of this institution and not only this institution but around the state. Whether you're in Sheridan, Casper or Thermopolis, this is the state team, and I embrace that.

"I'm looking forward to getting to know the people of our great state of Wyoming. It will be an exciting time for us. We understand that the bar is high. I also appreciate the vision that Tom (Burman) has, and I want to thank him for having faith in me to lead this football program. He was able to articulate to me where our football program needs to go and the resources that are going to be provided to allow us to experience success.

"I can't tell you how excited I am to embrace the Cowboy tradition."

Not only has Bohl won three national titles at the FCS level, but he was the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, when the Huskers won the 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

Bohl currently serves on the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Board of Trustees, having been elected by a vote of the membership at the 2012 AFCA national convention. He was also appointed to the 13-member NCAA Division I Football Competition Committee in January of 2017.

He concluded his career as head coach of the NDSU Bison, with a 104-32 (.765) record. He guided the Bison to the FCS Playoffs each of his final four seasons, posting a 14-1 record in the FCS Playoffs. His last three teams posted records of 14-1 (2011), 14-1 (2012) and 15-0 (2013) for a combined record of 43-2 (.956) on way to their three consecutive FCS national titles.

By winning the 2013 FCS National Championship, North Dakota State extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games, which tied both the NDSU and FCS records for consecutive victories. The Bison teams from 1964-66 originally set the school record with 24 straight victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. That record was later tied by Montana from 2001-02.

The 2013 NDSU team also set a North Dakota State single-season record for wins, posting a perfect 15-0 record. The Bison became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 FCS title.

In 2012 and '13, Bohl received both The Sports Network Eddie Robinson FCS National Coach of the Year Award and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) FCS National Coach of the Year Award. He became the first coach in the first 27 years of the Eddie Robinson Award to win it in consecutive seasons. In 2013, he also received the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year Award, which is presented in partnership with the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. His other National Coach of the Year honor came in 2006, when he was recognized by the Football Gazette as the FCS National Coach of the Year and the Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

Bohl grew up in Lincoln, Neb., and went on to attend the University of Nebraska where he was a reserve defensive back from 1977 to 1979 under head coach Tom Osborne. Bohl was part of Nebraska's 1979 Orange Bowl and 1980 Cotton Bowl teams.

The 2017 season will be Bohl's 37th year coaching at the college level. Born July 27, 1958, Bohl will be 59 years old when the 2017 season kicks off. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1982. Bohl's family includes wife Leia, and children Mallory and Morgan, Aaron and Elijah.
